POLICE OFFICER AND SOLDIER ARE SHOT WHEN MANIAC RUNS AMUCK

WOUNDED CORPORAL'S DEATH IS EXPECTED

John J. McMillan, Stationary Engineer, in Custody After Sensational Melrose Affray

SHOOTER IDENTIFIED AT CITY HOSPITAL

Grievously Injured, Member of Local Force Effects Capture of Man Who Attacked Him

Corporal of Police Herman O. Rumetsch, 559 Forty-third street, was shot and probably fatally wounded, and Private George W. Stone of the Angel Island hospital corps wounded in the right hand, when John J. McMillan, 40, a stationary engineer, was captured with a revolver at his home, 1735 High street, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

Corporal Rumetsch is in the Providence Hospital in a critical condition, while McMillan is in the custody of detectives who were rushed to the scene from the central station. At the hospital Rumetsch identified McMillan as the man who shot him. The stationary engineer is believed to be insane.

The shooting of the police corporal and the soldier was one of the most dramatic episodes in the history of the Oakland police department. It also inscribed the police officer's name among the doers of heroic deeds, for he captured the man who attempted to murder him after he had been grievously wounded.

WITH PISTOL CHASES MOTHER INTO STREET

McMillan ran amuck in his home when his mother, Mrs. George McMillan, was alone with him. The first intimation that anyone had that anything was wrong was when Mrs. McMillan ran screaming up the street with her son in the rear waving a revolver.

"He is trying to kill me," the aged woman shrieked. Just before she reached the Melrose police station, McMillan dropped the weapon he was flourishing, a circumstance which probably saved the woman's life. As she dashed into the station, the infuriated engineer recovered his revolver and ran back to his home, which is just around the corner from the police station.

Corporal Rumetsch was on duty at the time and went after McMillan. The latter saw him coming, and waiting until Rumetsch was entering the gate of the house he covered him with a revolver and ordered him to keep back. He then turned to enter the house, and the next instant the police corporal was on his back. McMillan whirled with a sudden motion and thrust the muzzle of his weapon against Rumetsch's chest.

Before the officer could wrest the revolver away, McMillan fired three times, one bullet passing through the policeman's left lung.

DESPITE HIS WOUND OFFICER FIGHTS BACK

Wounded, with the blood streaming down the front of his uniform, and things going black before him, Corporal Rumetsch clung to his man and finally succeeded in getting the handcuffs on him. He was too weak to take away the deadly revolver, and McMillan backed away with the apparent intention of finishing the job as Rumetsch crumpled down on the sidewalk.

At this juncture, Private George W. Stone, 1425 High street, who had been a witness of the shooting, ran to the corporal's assistance. The maddened engineer fired again, the bullet striking the corporal in the back. Noting the danger, the soldier closed in and succeeded in disarming McMillan. Policeman S. B. Monteil, telephone

BANDITS GET LOOT

NEWCASTLE, Pa., Nov. 15.—Four bandits this afternoon shot and killed one man, wounded another and escaped with $17,000, the payroll of the Johnston limestone quarries of Hillsdale, near here.

Tony Sack, one of the guards, was shot dead.

A. D. Farrell, superintendent of the quarries, was wounded.

Hundreds of Huns Give Up Their Arms On the West Front

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—"Republic" is their password and hundreds of German troops are surrendering voluntarily on the west front, the American government is semi-officially informed.

These surrenders are the result of the French government's "follow-up" campaign since President Wilson's democratic Germany appeals were showered over the German lines from allied airplanes.

Those surrendering do so with the understanding that they are to be treated not as enemy prisoners, but permitted to work for a German republic.

DREDGE NEED LOSES PORT BIG VESSELS

Five or more big vessels in the past few weeks have been prevented from docking at the port of Oakland on account of lack of harbor facilities. Commissioners F. Morse and given to the Merchants' Exchange by men who are in the warehouse and ship building business in Oakland. Morse has asked City Wharfing W. J. Master, and J. C. Downey, president of the Merchants' Exchange, is making a special investigation of the situation. The matter has also been taken up with the Oakland Harbor League.

Dockage, tolls, warehousing and incidental profits of having cargo moving through Oakland and over Oakland docks have been lost as a result of the conditions existing at the present time. Among these are sufficient depth of water in the estuary in front of the quay wall along First street.

THOSE THAT ARE LOST

Among the vessels whose cargoes might have been moved over the Oakland docks had the facilities been available are the following:

The Japanese steamship, Kaiko-Maru, which was ready to deliver its entire cargo here for transshipment to eastern points. The United States transport Dix, with 11,000 bales of hemp and 5000 tons of sugar.

The Matson liner, Wilhelmina, with a cargo of pineapples.

Several ships with steel rails, the full consignment being more than 6000 tons, to have been transhipped to Japan.

This steel shipment was called to the attention of Commissioner Morse by the Oakland representative involved in the purchase and sale of the rails. It was a case of 6000 tons of rails being brought from Mexico, in small shipments and transferred to big Japanese vessels for the trans-Pacific voyage.

The Oakland representatives took

TELEPHONE STRIKE IS SETTLED BY MEDIATORS

Electrical Workers to Receive Increase of 12½ Per Cent; Operators Also Given Raise

UNION RECOGNITION IS LEFT IN ABEYANCE

Commission Expects Men in Northwest Will Send Delegates and Come to Terms

The telephone strike is settled. The President's mediation commission, after a conference in San Francisco with both the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company officials and delegates to the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, which lasted until far into the night, came to an agreement, and the following awards will be made by the commission, probably late this afternoon:

The electrical workers are to receive a flat increase of 12½ per cent. Telephone operators receiving up to $50 a month receive an increase of 12½ per cent. Those receiving in excess of $50 will have their increase fixed by an arbitrator who will be named by the commission as its permanent representative on the Pacific Coast.

OPERATORS' UNION QUESTION AVOIDED

The most difficult issue in the controversy—that of a recognition of the operators' union—was avoided by the mediators, who in their awards state that the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company will not interfere in the organization of present or future locals of the operators, nor discriminate against these active in such organizations. Open shop will continue as it has in the past, the International Brotherhood being bound only for the duration of the war to this award, which applies in a similar manner to the telephone company.

DOUBTFUL AS TO NORTHWEST STAND

John Morganthaler, president of the Pacific District Council of the Electrical Workers, said this morning:

"It is hard to say what the Northwest will do. They have not thus far indicated a desire to treat with the San Francisco conference, and it is my firm belief that the situation there will have to be handled as a separate unit by the President's mediation commission. We can, of course, tear their charters from the wall and expel them from the International Brotherhood for disobedience, and International Vice-President L. C. Grasser has the power but this would cause a breach, as the Northwest workers, even if badly advised, are nevertheless entitled to an opinion."

PETROGRAD IS FLAYED BY FIRE; LATINS NAIL HUNS TO PIAVE LINE

GERMANS ARE HURLED BACK FROM RIVER BANK

Teutons Cross at Many Points, But Are Driven Back by the Italians; Fierce Fighting On

INVADERS SUFFER LOSS IN AIRS FIGHT

Enemy Repulsed at Melett, Mt. Fiara, Davanti, Mt. Castelgoberno and Frisoni: Rome

PARIS, Nov. 15.—Georges Clemenceau, the "tiger," as he is known in French politics, late today accepted the post of premier of France, and began his choice of a cabinet to succeed the ministry headed by Poincaré.

ST. UNITED PRESS TRIBUNE LEADS WIRE TO TRIBUNE

ROME, Nov. 15.—Italian troops are holding fast on the Piave river line.

"Fresh enemy attempts to cross the river were frustrated," today's war office statement asserted. "Units which have already crossed are closely shut in around the Zenson loop, which is under our artillery fire."

"Around Mount Tomatico our advanced posts withdrew, after resistance to attacks already decided," the war office continued.

(Mount Tomatico is about three miles nearly due south of Feltre. "At Quero Pass the enemy's attack was paralyzed by our resistance."

(Quero Pass is on the Piave, seven miles below Feltre).

"The enemy was repulsed at Melett, Davanti, Mount Fiara, Mount Castelgoberno, also Frisoni and on the confluence of the Brenia-Cison rivers. The same was true between the Cison and the Piave."

(All the points mentioned are on the northern or left wing of the Italian line).

BERLIN, Nov. 15.—German troops on the mountain front in Northern Italy are advancing to the south from Fontasso and Feltre, says today's official communication.

VENICE EVACUATION IS ALMOST COMPLETE

VENICE, Nov. 15.—The evacuation of Venice is almost complete, the city having undergone the same treatment as Treviso and Vicenza, with the difference that its art treasures were so numerous and of such colossal proportions that an army of workmen was required to transport them. The great pictures, carvings, fine glassware and ivories and similar art treasures were transported easily, being removed at the beginning of the war. The present removal of art treasures included the heaviest work, which up to this time had been protected by sand-bags or hid in cellars. The most important was the Bartolomeo Colleoni monument, the last work of Andrea Verrocchio, master of Leonardo da Vinci. It was erected in the fifteenth century and was regarded as one of the finest equestrian statues in the world. The four gilded bronze horses from the Basilica of Saint Mark also were removed. This was their first journey as they were taken from Rome to Constantinople and thence in 1294 to Venice. More than a hundred years ago Napoleon took them to Paris, when they were returned to Venice. They now probably will be housed temporarily in the Museum of the Baths of Doctollian at Rome.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The junction point of the Damascus-Beersheba railway with the line to Jerusalem is now in the possession of the British army in Palestine. It was officially announced today. The railway line to the vicinity of Na Anah and El Mansurth came into British possession as a result of the continued advance of General Allenby's army, and named "Gaza."

The Turks lost 1500 men in prisoners and more than 400 in dead on Tuesday, besides four guns and a score of machine guns.

Revised List of U.S. Casualties Add Names to Pershing's Dead

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The War Department this afternoon gave out the following corrected list of casualties sustained by General Pershing's men in their first encounter with the Germans. Killed:

- CORPORAL JAMES B. GRESHAM, Mrs. Alice Dogg, mother, 1101 West Ohio street, Evansville, Ind.

Americans Kill Two on Border Villa Raids Terrorize Mexico

BY INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

EL PASO, Texas, Nov. 15.—A bandit border patrol fired on the American guard at Ysleta during last night, according to reports received here today. The Americans returned the fire and are believed to have killed two Mexicans. American patrols have been instructed to fire to kill if fired upon.

With Villistas reported in control of the Mexican border from Ojinaga to Guadalupe, a distance of 200 miles, Colonel Horatio Siskie, commanding United States troops in the El Paso district, has thrown strong patrols along the border to guard against bandit raids.

VILLISTAS CONTROL TWO BIG STATES

Army officials believe the Mexican government forces under command of General Francisco Murguía are powerless to prevent the Villistas from dominating Chihuahua and Coahuila. It is reported to have been the corn crop in the district under their control. The strength of Villistas forces is estimated at from 3500 to 5000.

Juarez was thrown into a panic this morning when the Mexican patrol became excited and fired, thinking they had been attacked by bandits. Women and children ran to the international bridge to seek refuge in the United States.

Mexicans are permitted to come to the United States with Mexican passports not counter-signed by the American consul. No Americans are permitted to enter Mexico.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Parecho Villa is not leading the marauding bands in Northern Mexico, set of friends of the Mexican embassy. They declared today that they had positive information that Villa is now in Durango, living in the hills and recuperating from a serious wound.

MEXICAN OFFICIALS BELITTLE BATTLE

Advices from Mexico as given out by the Mexican embassy attach little importance to the attacks upon Ojinaga. Officials declare that Ojinaga is far from being a city, is only a hamlet and reached only through hours of travel over a vast desert. Mexican officials here believe that

Plot Against Life of Wilson Is Frustrated

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 15.—A plot to assassinate President Wilson during his visit to Buffalo Monday to address the delegates of the American Federation of Labor is believed to have been frustrated in the detention by local secret service operatives of John S. Gentry, 19, a local machinist who was brought here from the United States, attorney today and closely questioned.

He was asked if he had made threats to fellow employees that the President ought to be shot because he was sending men to the war.

Here is what he is reported to have replied:

"I'll shoot the President the first chance I get. He will be shot anyway."

BOLSHEVIKI UNABLE TO KEEP HOLD ON CAPITAL

Fighting Continues in the City Streets, Where Flames Are Started by Shells or Torch

CONTROL IS CLAIMED FOR KERENSKY FORCES

Relief From Present Economic Difficulties First Ahead of Whichever Party Is in Power

BULLETIN

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Two thousand persons had been killed in street fighting in Moscow up to noon Tuesday, according to reports brought by travelers to Sweden.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Confirmation of the news that Premier Kerensky and his forces are in full control of Moscow has been established by the Italian government, according to a cablegram from the Russian ambassador at Rome to the Russian embassy here this afternoon.

BY UNITED PRESS LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 15.—Petrograd was reported to be in flames in a report which reached here today by way of Haparanda.

No details of the fire were given. It was assumed here, however, that with forces of the Bolshevik provisional government still reported clashing in the capital's streets, the flames had been started by intent or by shells.

At last word from Petrograd, the provisional government was reported practically in control of the city.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 15.—The Bolshevik revolutionists have reconquered Gatchina and the Kerensky troops are retreating to the south, according to despatches received here today from Helsingfors.

The Bolshevik forces, it was declared, are attempting to cut off the retreating provisional government soldiers.

SEE RETURN OF PROVISIONAL RULE

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The Bolshevik adventure in government is all but ended, as London read the meager Russian news today. There was no direct news from Petrograd, but cumulative evidence seemed to point to the provisional government's gradual return to power in the capital.

As Russian observers here saw the situation, the nation's salvation now depends on the elements composing the Maximalist (radical), Bourgeois (peasant) and Cossack parties and the co-operative unions. The last named include nearly a third of the total population of Russia.

It was believed here that when the provisional forces do resign complete power the Maximalists and the radical Cadet parties would unite on a cabinet which would adopt a vigorous military and foreign policy.

Whatever government emerges, the chief problem for immediate and pressing settlement will be some solution of the economic crisis. Means must be adopted to increase the production of food.

ASSEMBLY SOON TO BE RECONVENED

As Russians here saw it, the provisional government must uproot the seeds of anarchy sown by Germans and radicals and then follow up with a restoration of war aims.

According to indirect word from Petrograd, arrangements have been made to convene the constitutional assembly as soon as possible.

On all sides here emphasis was laid on the fact that Russia has nothing to fear from the prominent part the Cossacks are taking in putting down the Bolshevik revolt. The Cossacks from their earliest history have been communistic in their ideas and intensely democratic.

Terminal! Railways to Spend Three Million in Five Years

General Manager Alberger Tells of Improvement and Reconstruction Work Necessary

Estimates that the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railways will have to expend $3,033,228.75 during the next five years in the maintenance of tracks, reconstruction and new equipment, were made this morning by General Manager W. R. Alberger at the trans-bay rate hearing before the State Railroad Commission. This expenditure is to be divided as follows:

Track reconstruction at the rate of ten miles per annum of single track, including concrete base and asphalt paving, $1,000,000; new track or existing lines, $170,212; new track and connection, $250,000; new lines into districts inadequately served, $181,800; new equipment, $381,000; miscellaneous reconstruction, $155,000.

He said that this amount would have to be expended to keep pace with the continual growth in population.

Alberger gave figures showing the increase in population since 1870 to the present year. In the first-named year the population was 30,000, today it is 260,000. The growth has been most rapid in the last thirteen years. From 1870 to 1904 a period of 34 years, the increase was 85,000, while from 1904 to 1917 the increase was 245,000. He said that he expected that future growth would be in the same high percentage.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES.

Alberger gave as his estimate of the additional annual charges to the operating expenses on account of the increased cost of labor as follows:

Track men $27,300, shop men $17,313, car house men $7,402, electric department $4446, boatmen $41,850, miscellaneous $3460, officers and clerks $2932, making a total of $107,805.

This does not include the increase in wages of platform men according to the recent ruling of the arbitration board, which will amount to approximately $140,000 a year.

Alberger began his testimony this morning with a resume of the history of the traction company from its first consolidation in 1899. He said that the first appreciable falling off in revenues began about 1912 with the rapid increase in the number of privately-owned automobiles. In 1915 the jitney began its deadly operations and Alberger claimed that in that year the traction company from this cause was $750,000.

LOSS DUE TO JITNEYS

"This completely demoralized the plans of the company," he said, "and made necessary an entire re-adjustment. The traffic from the extra travel to the exposition during the year 1915 were more than offset by the loss due to jitney competition. We estimate our loss today from this cause to be $100 a day."

Alberger said that expenses for material in construction would greatly increase during the next few years because many advantageous contracts for material will soon expire; for example, the oil contract will expire next year.

TEA IS "TEALESS"

The tea was tealess which the board of directors of the Mobilized Women's Organizations of Berkeley offered this afternoon in compliment to the 800 workers who obtained the 14,000 food pledges which were signed in the college town this month. The drive had been inspired by the principle to conserve foodstuffs. The hostesses decided that they would begin themselves to practice what they preached. Therefore the edict went forth that there would be no serving of refreshments, no matter how simple. There would be chats, but none over the tea cup. It was a surprise, but a success. Hotel Shattuck staged the war-time party. Mrs. Frederick T. Robson welcomed the large body of workers. Short dresses were made by Mrs. Lewis A. Hicks, who was general of the food conservation corps. Mrs. Douglass W. Ross, chairman of the food conservation committee, and Mrs. Charles Rieber, who conceived the military plan which was used in the campaign.

The Soloelle—the New Solo Player Piano

Before the Soloelle, no one ever heard a player piano that could do these two things:

First: Give you complete and satisfactory, separate and distinct control of Melody and Accompaniment.

Second: Give you perfect control of Tone Color.

These two things are absolutely vital and indispensable to the production of real music.

The New Soloelle will entirely revolutionize your idea of what a player piano is. It is entirely and sensationally different and better.

The greatest musical authorities—the leading mechanical engineers of the player piano trade—the largest manufacturers of player pianos in the world, one and all have accepted and acknowledged the Soloelle as the only player piano that has succeeded in overcoming every obstacle, and alone of all player pianos permits the free expression of your own personal individuality and taste.

The Soloelle is a great entertainer, as well as a great educator. Homes with children and tired fathers and home-loving mothers peculiarly need the Soloelle.

Daily in our Soloelle studio there is a continuous demonstration of the marvelous music produced by the Soloelle in the world's leading player pianos:

Koford Maintains Woman Guilty Miriam Gleason Causes Wonder

"I am thoroughly convinced that the conviction of Mrs. Helen Gleason for the smothering of her three-weeks-old baby was just, in view of all the circumstances, and I will oppose the motion for a new trial, if one is interposed, on the ground that Mrs. Gleason's much-advertised confession of untruthfulness on the witness stand is not sufficient to disturb the facts found," declared Assistant District Attorney James M. Koford this morning.

KOFORD EXPLAINS.

"The only phase of her story that she now denies is that she saw her mother place the baby in the dresser drawer," continued Koford. "She adheres to all the rest of it, even to the episode at the water tank in which she said that her mother laid the baby on the ground and started away, later changing her mind and taking it home."

"She says she doesn't know how the baby died. She still says her mother placed the body in the suitcase, but she does not remember, she says, what disposition was made of it."

"She claims that she has been thinking it over and praying for her mother and that it came to her while in prayer that she had not told the truth and that she should now change her testimony. She used expressions that have evidently been suggested to her by some one, such as 'I am convinced that I did my mother a grave injustice, and that her story was a myth.'"

On the witness stand Miriam used expressions that revealed a mentality in advance of her years, such as: "I told it as I remember it; I did not make it a fact." All along in her story and a half on the stand she constantly said: "As I remember it; I may be wrong."

"I am convinced that she told it right," declares Koford, "and that she is now trying to help her mother, having come into full realization of the effect of her story. She took the romance out of the theory that it was the covering of the bird cage that suggested the smothering of the baby, as she told it on the stand, and makes no explanation of how she happened to remember it that way."

MIRIAM PUZZLES KOFORD.

Miriam was interviewed yesterday after school in the study connected with the Notre Dame Academy, Chestnut and San Jose streets, Alameda, where she had gone to attend catechism class. The interview lasted for two hours and the entire evidence was gone into. After the interview, Koford said in reply to a query that he did not understand it.

It is highly probable that on account of her reputation of the vital portion of her story, the part having to do with the smothering of the baby in the drawer, the case will fall. The father's testimony will corroborate.

David Layton, San Diego capitalist, is at the Oakland.

President Joseph H. King of the Chamber of Commerce returned today after a trip of several days in the Sierras inspecting mining properties.

rate the testimony of Mrs. Gleason that the body was lying on the bed at 9 o'clock at night though according to Miriam's original yarn it was buried in the back yard in the afternoon.

STATE NEEDS GIRL.

Counsel for the defense is summing up at the trial pointed out that that was approximately the only point in the State's case they had attempted to deny. Mrs. Gleason agreed with the State's witnesses in most of the rest of the story. Now if Miriam also denies that, no direct proof remains. Even if she repudiates her confession of untruthfulness the defense maintains the effect of her remarkable tale is lost. Without her the State admits it has no evidence of the baby having been actually killed, except only the circumstances attending. That the body was not legally disposed of is not in itself, it is held, proof of murder. And in the trial of the case the State produces no witness to the illegal disposal except what Mrs. Gleason admitted.

Attorneys Skinner and Geary for the defense today said that they have not seen that "Little Witness" and that they had nothing to do with her confession. They declare that they will vigorously urge the motion for a new trial, which is to be heard Saturday.

"Wear-Ever" Aluminum Roaster

Makes possible the preparation of an entire meal in oven or on top of stove, all at one time—a delicious roast, baked potatoes, macaroni, and even a dessert such as baked apples, rice pudding, etc.

Thus fuel and bother are saved and you spend less time in the kitchen—have more time to rest.

"Wear-Ever" utensils store up a large amount of heat and hold it a long time. The heat quickly "runs" throughout the utensil—it does not collect in one spot and burn food—it cooks food evenly and thoroughly from the sides as well as from the bottom. Therefore, IF LOW HEAT IS USED, you need not stir the food. Burnt food is a sign that you have used more fuel than is necessary—or that the food has cooked too long and has become dry.

Make war on fuel-waste, on food-waste, on time-waste and on utensil-waste!

FORMER MERCHANT ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

Dependent over his inability to combat the high cost of living and out of work, E. L. Hunt, 67, former well-to-do hardware merchant of 2316 Carlton street, Berkeley, attempted suicide at thirty-fifth and Hopkins street, after he had been refused employment on account of his advanced age, by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. He has a wife and two children.

Hunt lay in bushes by the roadside for several hours before passersby, hearing his groans, went to his assistance and had him removed to the Central Emergency hospital.

Camp Lewis Cleared of Crooks Bad Check Passers Are Arrested

CAMP LEWIS, Nov. 15.—More than a hundred Tacoma merchants are alleged to have been victimized in amounts aggregating $1000 by a series of checks passed by Sergeant Douglas Proud and Sergeant White, who have been arrested by the military authorities for operations said to extend over a period of two months.

The majority of the checks, according to the authorities were for small amounts. On one night alone, they are alleged to have cashed fifteen fraudulent checks in as many Tacoma stores. The arrest of the two men was accomplished when they "repeated" on a girl cashier whom they had previously victimized and who was on the lookout for them. It is thought the men expected to be ordered east and tried to make a clean-up before they left.

Word has also been received by the military police of the arrest in Montana of a man wearing a first lieutenant's uniform, who passed by the name of Clark. The man is wanted at Camp Lewis and, North Yakima, where it is alleged he obtained several thousand dollars through bogus checks and drafts.

ONE SYSTEM FOR MILK DELIVERY

Establishment of a common distributing system for all milk companies in the bay cities and the consequent lowering of the cost of delivery is being sought by milk dealers through an appeal to the State Market Director. A resolution, urging the State Board of Control to appropriate money for a survey of the distributing system in Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda and San Francisco, was adopted yesterday at a meeting held across the bay. It is proposed to have a franchise granted to one corporation to cover the entire region.

The information gathered in the survey, if it is carried out, will be placed before the next State Legislature with the request that a bill be passed making the common practice and authorizing cities to grant exclusive franchises for the distribution of milk within their boundaries. Under the present duplication of systems the distribution in the east bay cities costs on an average 15.5 cents a gallon, according to figures compiled by the agricultural department of the University of California.

No figures have been compiled for San Francisco, but it is believed that the cost there is still greater. If the expenditure is authorized by the Board of Control, Director Harris Weinstein will place the survey in the hands of the University.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotics, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversity, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children in any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

OH! THAT AWFUL BACKACHE IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

An unhealthy body, and the unhappiness and misery which follow, may be prevented by ordinary judgment and care. Keep your stomach and kidneys in shape and you will have good health. The kidney's work is to throw off the poisonous matters which enter the body. If they perform this work regularly and automatically the other organs will take care of themselves.

Diseased conditions of the bladder or kidneys are indicated by nervousness, sleeplessness, that tired, worn-out feeling, dizziness, nausea, backache, lumbago, rheumatism, pain in the lower abdomen, many so-called "female troubles," severe pain and discomfort when urinating, bloody, cloudy and stringy urine, too frequent or suppressed passages. All these are nature's signals to warn you of diseased kidneys or bladder, which may lead to fatal Bright's disease.

Don't wait until the danger is upon you. Go to your druggist at once. Get a trial box of GOLD MEDAL Haaslem Oil Capsules. They are made of the pure, original, imported Haaslem Oil, the kind your great-grandfather used. About two capsules each day will keep you toned up and feeling fine. Money refunded if they do not help you. But remember to ask for the imported GOLD MEDAL brand. In sealed packages, 25c, 50c and $1.00. Advertisement.

Grained Ivory for Gifts

We ought to make this a practical Christmas. Our gifts should be useful articles. If usefulness and beauty can be combined, so much the better. This has been accomplished in grained ivory ware. There's beauty in design and finish, and every article has a distinctive use.

Button Hook and Shoe Horn 65c
Two indispensable articles combined in one (see the picture on the left). A gift that is sure to be welcome. The cost is trifling.

Shoe Horns 25c to 75c—A good assortment of the plain horns.

Tooth Brush Holders 50c
Like the picture on the right. The proper size. Made of heavy ivory with close fitting cover. An interesting feature at 50c.

Nail Buffers 50c
Like the picture above. You will note that a case is included. The chamois is detachable. The prices on Nail Buffers range up to $1.50.

Holders for Talcum Cans 65c
Allows the talcum a place on the dresser without offending the eye. It's a plain ivory case that holds the standard size oval talcum cans.

Soap Boxes 25c
Telescope style boxes for average size soaps. They are moisture proof. We have other soap boxes at 50c.

Pin Cushion Jewel Boxes $1.00
The picture tells the story. The top is a plush covered pin cushion. The body is a practical size jewel or trinket box. We have them at many prices from 50c up, but this is a special value.

Friday and Saturday Only:

The Owl Beef, Iron and Wine

47c
(3 for $1.25)

Here's a chance to buy one of our most valuable and nutritious tonics at a very special price—75c bottles (16 oz.) for 47c, three for $1.25.

Very successful in cases of impaired nutrition and general prostration and especially good in the convalescence period following fevers or any long sickness.

The Owl Theatrical Cold Cream

Thousands and thousands of women have learned this important fact: It cleanses better than soap and water—particularly after you have been out-of-doors. It soothes irritated skins and builds up tissues. It prevents sunburn, tan, freckles, etc.

A full pound tin for 60c. Send post-paid anywhere in the U. S.

Massage Brushes 25c
Like the picture. They strap over the hand. They stimulate the circulation, remove dead cuticle, etc. Will not irritate the most sensitive skin.

We also have a splendid massage brush with handle at 25c.

Powder Puffs 10c
Made of soft, closely woven velvet. The favorite puff for applying cosmetic. A very popular feature at 10c.

Prices on other powder puffs range up to 50c.

Rexall Cold Tablets
A speedy, sure relief for heavy stubborn colds. They ease that "tight" feeling and clear the head.

25c Box

Ameroil For Constipation
The modern way to treat this common ailment is to use Ameroil, which lubricates rather than stimulates.

Pint bottles, 65c.

BATTERIES HIT CAMP IN SOUTH

Special to The TRIBUNE.

CAMP KEARNY, Nov. 15.—The First California Field Artillery, consisting of Batteries A, B, C, arrived after a two-day's trip and is now quartered on the southeast part of the camp near the Colorado Field Artillery. The greater part of the men in Battery B are from Oakland and the remainder are from San Francisco. The men in Battery A are from Los Angeles and Battery C is from Stockton. With the exception of four thousand Liberty Boys to be sent here from Camp Lewis, these batteries form the last body of troops who will arrive in camp this winter. The addition of the First California brings the total camp population up to 24,000 men.

The trip from the Presidio was enjoyed by all. The men left the presidio docks at 11 o'clock Saturday morning by a government transport to Richmond where they boarded the train and journeyed through the San Joaquin valley. The only stop was at Barstow, below the Tehachapi Pass, where they were hospitably entertained for six hours on Sunday. Cigars were passed around and a big dance wound up a pleasant afternoon.

The battery is fully equipped with field artillery pieces and horses. The men were on the border during the trouble with Mexico for six months doing patrol duty and are seasoned veterans. They were mustered out soon after the present war was declared and went into camp at the Presidio on June 23. The new camp is fully up to their expectations as it provides unexcelled sanitary equipment, modern mess halls, wooden floors for tents and electric lights.

FOR "DRY" STATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—With the filing of petitions bearing 40,000 names in Los Angeles today, backers of the Rominger bill expected to have 50,000 on file before the end of the week. Petitions bearing 20,000 names were filed here yesterday. In addition, Oakland petitions bearing 11,000 names were filed and 5000 have been filed in San Jose. The law requires 75,000 valid signatures to get the measure on the ballot for the next state election.

SAVE TIN BY NOT CANNING PEA AND BEAN

No more beans or peas can be canned, except by permission of the federal government.

This is the information that comes to the Food Supply Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce from the Washington. The committee's announcement follows:

The United States Food administration announces that on account of the possible shortage of tin plate necessary for the conservation of food products in 1918 it has included in the rules governing canning operations that no dried beans or dried peas shall be canned without a special permit from the food administration, and it is now illegal for canners to operate on these products without special permit.

"Driers in dried beans and dried peas will be required to get special permit before selling these products for canning purposes and can makers are instructed not to supply cans for these purposes.

"Particular reference should be made to any contracts made with the army or the navy or with the allied governments. In view of the shortage of seed peas and dried peas the canning of soaked beans is prohibited by the food administration as a wasteful practice and must be discontinued immediately."

DOCTOR TO MARRY

A marriage license was taken out this morning by Dr. Nyo Nilton Ashley, formerly of the Oakland Receiving Hospital, and Miss Mildred Hawes, daughter of P. T. Hawes, mortician of Centerville. They will, after their marriage, make their home in Niles, where the doctor entered upon the practice two weeks ago, after his resignation from the Oakland hospital Dr. Ashby is a graduate of the

Militant Will Speak at Hotel Promise Not to Make Attacks

Following personal assurances, given Assistant Manager Maurice Schenk of the Hotel Oakland by Miss Martin herself and by Mrs. Elinor Carlisle, head of the state branch of the National Women's Party that no attacks on President Wilson or criticisms of the administration would be made at the affair, the meeting scheduled for Saturday, when Miss Anne Martin will be the principal speaker, will be held as scheduled. The affair will be a tea at the Hotel Oakland under the auspices of the party.

Announcement that Miss Martin would speak caused a storm of protest yesterday from women's clubs and patriotic organizations. Miss Martin, who is known as "Little Governor Anne" and as a suffrage leader, was one of the sixteen pickets arrested at the White House.

MRS. KENT URGED. She came to the coast at the behest of Mrs. William Kent, wife of the former congressman, herself under arrest for picketing.

Plans of Mrs. Edgar L. Ormsby, president of the Oakland Club, to lay the matter before her body for a protest, were changed, and, with the announcement, that promise has been given that there will be nothing said tending to attack the

SAYS HUBBY WEAK

Claiming that her husband, Hugo Gluck, 1466 East Thirty-seventh street, is incapable of handling his own affairs, his wife, Mrs. Dora Thea Gluck, went on the stand before Judge Wells this morning and gave testimony in support of her application to be appointed his guardian.

Her testimony was that he is dependent upon his mother for the family support; that she receives $150 a month from his mother for expenses and that he receives an additional $50 for his personal use; that he dissipates the money and that he would continue to do so if he should suddenly come into the possession of his one-third interest in his mother's estate, amounting to $100,000.

Mrs. Gluck says they were married in Minneapolis and that she met him in the hospital, where he was a patient and she a nurse.

Throughout her testimony Gluck was smiling and prompting his attorney, he took the stand in the afternoon and denied his wife's allegations.

PROSECUTION FOR EVADERS OF WAR TAX

As the result of the investigation of Chief Postoffice Inspector S. H. March, there will be wholesale criminal prosecutions by the government for evading the war revenue act providing the new postage rate of 4 cents, except where the letter is addressed within the city in which it is mailed.

Clerks and stenographers employed by San Francisco post office in Oakland mail sent out by various corporations and are liable, with the officials of these corporations, to a penalty of six months in prison or a fine of $500.

It was stated by a Federal official that "this mercenary attempt to dodge the internal revenue tax will be severely dealt with by us."

ROTARY CLUB TO AID Y.M.C.A. DRIVE

About 200 members of the Rotary Club were present at the luncheon at the Hotel Oakland today. The unusually large attendance was due to the Y. M. C. A. drive and a number of speeches were made, resulting in 100 members pledging themselves to raise $25 each. An announcement was made by Fred M. Hunter, superintendent of schools, that starting with next week, a "charity begins at home" movement, backed by the Federated Mothers' Clubs of Oakland and the Board of Education, would be started.

Sixty per cent of the school children of Oakland are foreign born, and as a result of a recent investigation made, it was shown that hundreds of children are not able to attend school on account of the lack of shoes.

On November 24 a band concert and vaudeville entertainment will be given at the auditorium theater by the Shriners' band, the Elks' club, and Scottish clans for these homeless and destitute children.

Hunter made an earnest plea for the co-operation of the Rotary Club in connection with this enterprise.

A humorous speech was made by Max Horwinski on mental efficiency in which he showed up a number of members as being in the feeble-minded, five, ten and fifteen-year-old classes.

CRACKED CRAB FEASTS WILL BE RESUMED TODAY

Today is the day that lovers of cracked crab have been looking forward to, for the season for the shell fish opens on this date. To cheer those who have been waiting so long for their opening feast, it is hereby announced that 180 crab fishermen took out state licenses, and will endeavor to avail themselves to the fullest of the limit law and bring in 7200 crabs.

Crabs will be sold to the dealers by contract for about $2.15 a dozen. The dealer's commission will be 32 cents, making the crabs about 30 cents each to the consumer. Through the efforts of the state market commission, crab dealers recently signed up to take a fixed number of crabs each day. Crabs must be at least seven inches in diameter. The season opened today, under the new conditions.

JURGINS SUCCEEDS MANAGER SWORD

W. C. Jurgens, son of Charles Jurgens, principal stockholder in the Hotel Oakland, today assumed management of the hotel in the place of Carl Sword, who last night, after filing his resignation, left the hotel.

Sword plans to leave for New York, where he expects to enter other business. Jurgens, who has always held the title of vice-president and general manager of the hotel, refused to discuss the resignation, but declared that the directors of the hotel would issue their side of the matter in a few days.

Sword, in resigning, issued a statement that there had been differences between himself and Jurgens and declared that interference in his departments caused his resignation.

Jurgens says that as principal stockholder he has a right to handle his affairs to suit himself and refused further to discuss Sword's statement, save to deny charges made by Sword that he is "pro-German."

WILL PRINT BONDS

A contract was let this morning for the printing of the estuary bridge bonds by the finance committee of the Board of Supervisors to the Hall-White Printing Company, their bid of $995 being the lowest of the six bids submitted. The highest bid was made by the Carlisle Company, for $370. The contract is for the printing of the 1800 bonds, in denominations of $500. The bonds will be lithographed, with steel border effect. The sale of the first $150,000 of the $900,000 issue will begin within three weeks.

MRS. EDAL IS REFUTED BY WITNESS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Following the testimony of a number of traffic policemen on duty during the preparedness parade, the defense placed one of its main witnesses on the stand in the trial of Israel Weisberg today. Myrvyn Lynch, Oakland coal dealer, contradicted Mrs. Nellie Edal in her statement that she had never discussed the explosion with

Lynch said: "Mrs. Edal not only talked with me, but said she saw two men and two women, one of the men with a suitcase, at the corner of Steuart and Market streets. She also said that she was going to see Chief of Police Ferguson."

Attorney Edward McKenzie asked: "Did you call on Assistant District Attorney Ferrari in response to a subpoena?"

The witness answered "Yes." Ferrari jumped to his feet in anger and said: "I told you to tell the truth."

Thomas J. Douglas, 1111 Castle street, Oakland, said he stood at Steuart and Market streets and saw one automobile go up and one go down just before the explosion, but did not recognize Weinberg, Thomas Mooney or Warren K. Billings, alleged co-conspirators.

NECESSITY PLEA

Alleging that they are manufacturing chemicals necessary for the prosecution of the war, the Catalytic Chemical Company, Third and Bancroft way, Berkeley, answers the complaint of J. A. Bolard that the company's plant destroys his nursery stock.

The company sets up that they are makers of a chemical used in the manufacture of munitions, which before the war was obtainable from Germany, and that their plant is the only one in the world where the chemical is now made.

ROWE PROMOTED

ALAMEDA, Nov. 15.—Word has been received by Mrs. M. F. Rowe, 2233 San Antonio avenue that her son, James Roy Rowe, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant in the 160th Infantry, 4th Division, and that their plant is the only one in the world where the chemical is now made.

Rowe is known as a musical circles about the bay, and for several years was tenor soloist for the First Methodist church of Alameda. He is with Company 18, 4th Battalion, 166th Depot Brigade at Camp Lewis.

GET MESS FUND

To the effect that the boys of B and E Batteries Oakland military organizations now at Camp Kearny shall have a mess fund that is equal of any in the army the Oakland League of Moose has begun a campaign to enlist the people of Oakland in the cause. A committee composed of W. J. Hamilton (chairman), A. Vander Nalieu Jr., L. H. Spino, George Samuels and Charles A. eBardsley has been chosen to handle the details, and it is planned to call upon all Oakland fraternal, civic and commercial organizations to co-operate toward the raising of a sufficient fund to insure the full recognition of the soldier boys.

Captain W. J. Peterson of Battery E, formerly chief of police of Oakland, recently addressed the Moose lodge, of which he is a member, upon the importance of giving the Oakland boys fuller recognition from home. A meeting has been planned for this week at which representatives of the other Oakland organization will be in attendance.

SEVERE WINTER

Cooks Inlet, Southwestern Alaska, is experiencing one of the earliest and most severe winters in years, according to cable advices received here today. The Inlet is full of ice and two steamships, the Skagway and the Matiposa, have put back to Seward after trying to reach Anchorage, the government railroad town on the Inlet. The Skagway narrowly escaped being forced ashore by the drift ice. The cargoes will be discharged at Seward and sent to Anchorage over the railroad.

SERIES BEGINS

Oakland's second regular symphony season will open tomorrow evening in the Auditorium Opera House with the first of a series of six concerts by the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra. Alfred Hertz director. There has been a steady demand for both single and season tickets, and there are indications that this season will be more successful than the last. The opportunity to hear at home the finest symphonic organization in the West is welcomed by Oakland music-lovers. The program for the opening concert tomorrow is a most attractive one. Rachmanov's Symphony No. 2 in E minor, a work of intense vigor and emotion, has been selected as the main offering. With it will be presented Massenet's picturesque "Scenes Alsaciennes" in four movements. Saint-

Saen's prelude to "Le Deluge" with its exquisite obligato for the violin and Liszt's "Les Preludes."

FRYE IS BANKRUPT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Charles Crowninshield Frye, noted Boston and San Francisco architect and society man, today has on record a pauper's oath, made in United States district court, alleging he has not sufficient funds to file a petition in bankruptcy. He claims his trunk, with personal belongings, is being held to cover an unpaid hotel bill here. Frye has remarried since his first wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Belle Graff Frye, daughter of a Pittsburg magnate, divorced him in 1912, charging he squandered a fortune left him by Francis Chase, Boston merchant. For a time Frye lived in Los Angeles.

BABES, NOT COIN

"All I want is my babies and my freedom; I don't want any alimony," Mrs. Della May Schmitz told Judge Quinn during her trial for divorce from her husband, Dr. J. W. Schmitz, a promoter, yesterday afternoon. Whiskey was given as the cause of their difficulties. Judge Quinn advised her that if she received no alimony at the time the divorce was granted she would be forever barred from claiming support for the children, and it was stipulated that alimony should be fixed at the nominal sum of $1 a month.

CHARGE CRUELTY

Philip Fernandez taught his children by a former marriage to "wallop" the children of his second wife, Mrs. Christina Fernandez, according to her complaint for divorce. She says, also, that her husband declared he didn't want a wife and that he proceeded to kick her out of the house. They were married in Hawaii in 1911.

Mable Thorn charges cruelty in a complaint for divorce against Walter Thorn, and Maud Allen is suing John B. Allen for divorce on the grounds of desertion.

SELLS U. S. PLANT

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 15.—The armaments firm of Deutsche Waffen und Munitionsfabrik of Berlin, according to the Frankfurter Zeitung, has sold its American works at Philadelphia. The price paid was more than 15,000,000 marks, which, the newspaper says, is largely in excess of the original value of the plant and includes profit on exchange.

ONE OF FOUR

The American Poultry Association with headquarters in New York City, has designated the Alameda county poultry and California pigeon, rabbit and pet stock show to be held November 29 to December 2 inclusive, at the Oakland Municipal Auditorium, as one of the four poultry shows in the United States where poultry seeking to register in the Standard of Perfection must be exhibited. W. T. DeLong, J. J. Crow and J. C. Doolittle have been appointed to judge the rabbit department by the association. Cash prizes, cups and ribbons will be awarded in all departments. Entries in all departments of the combined show will close on November 22, according to C. H. Hinds, secretary of the Alameda County Poultry Association.

New Women of Clubs

By Edna B. Kinard

Now that the second food pledge drive has been added to history and 45,000 home addresses in Alameda County have volunteered for the second line of defense, pledging themselves to a substitution of one kind of staples for another which is demanded by the armies and navies, the real work of the federal administration has begun. Are the women holding to the covenant which they have made?

The National Committee of Churches, which has headquarters in Washington, D. C., has originated an interesting card system which it is urging upon its local members to adopt as their contribution to war service. It is a follow-up of the food pledge, emphasizing the personal responsibility of the housewife in the daily planning of meals for the family. The National Committee of Churches in Alameda County and the Episcopal Church in Alameda County are among the Alameda county religious bodies which are trying out the method. The plan is in co-operation with the state agricultural authorities and for its basis urges that every church immediately appoint a local committee on food conservation.

A form is placed in the hands of the housewives for nine consecutive weeks, making a complete record of meals for that period. The number of persons who have partaken of meals, the number of meals which have been served; the number of "wheatless days" with no bread or cereal made; the number of "meatless days" with no beef, mutton or pork; the number of wasteless meals, are included in the summary.

It is an experiment which may appeal to any group of women who are sincere in their desire to conserve, to adopt for a given period the simple questionnaire which is being tried by the religious organizations.

An organization called "Cheaper Living" has been founded in Paris. This society, a sort of "national school of economy and thrift," has instituted a series of lectures. At the close of each series examinations are held. Delegates chosen from those who pass properly accredited by the Minister of the Interior and the Minister of Public Instruction are then sent out into Paris and the suburbs to hold fifteen lectures a month followed by questionnaires. By the end of the year, less than by their public addresses, they get in touch with various groups of people and will fill the position of extension professors. The work so far has been financed by benevolence. The group of delegates has gone out and their influence is already being felt in France as shown by the newspapers. For example, a recent case of poisoning in a school canteen where the fireless cooker was used impels the papers to publish warnings that it is necessary to put out the stove and heat it thoroughly before serving to sterilize the contents.

Alameda county woman's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, held an interesting session yesterday in the headquarters in the City Hall, with a large representation from many of the local units present. Mrs. Frederick C. Turner presided. Delegates were offered from Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Alvarado, San Lorenzo, Livermore, Hayward and San Leandro.

The committee created a fund to care for its current expenses by assessing the city units according to membership.

A conference of chairmen of the local units, Alameda county woman's committee, Councils of National and State Defense, was held yesterday afternoon at the invitation of Miss Eva Powell, president of the Young Women's Christian Association, to prepare for the campaign which will be inaugurated for a week beginning tomorrow. The purpose of the conference was to raise funds for the work of the war council of the national association.

At a meeting of the county chairmen of the State Council of Defense at the Palace hotel on Thursday, a resolution was adopted recommending the co-operation of the state organization with the war council of the Y. W. C. A.

The City Club of Berkeley, which is composed of the leading men of the college town and the Mobilized Women of the city, are making plans to work in co-operation during the winter. With the coming of peace the habit will be so well formed that Berkeley is promised a united citizenship. The Civic Club announces that "war service" and "civilian control" are the main purposes of the City Club programs for the winter. The women have already set an example in doing things; they have asked the men to get together to do their part to help make the gravity of the emergency understood and to develop a better understanding of the war situation. This is not the time for finding fault, but rather for finding out how we can all unite for the common cause and do our part in the world crisis.

Mrs. Douglas, R. S., chairman of food conservation under the Mobilized Women's organizations, will share with Ralph P. Merritt, federal food administrator for California, and E. S. Hogan, secretary of the Retail Grocers' and Merchants' Association for

CAN'T FIND DANDRUFF

Every bit of dandruff disappears after one or two applications of Danderine rubbed well into the scalp with the finger tips. Get a small bottle of Danderine in any drug store for a few cents and save your hair. After several applications you can't find a particle of dandruff or any itching scalp, and the scalp will be healthy. Advertisement.

Boeily

The social event to which society has looked forward for many weeks past is to take place this evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shockley will open their beautiful home at King and Farragut avenues, Piedmont, for a brilliant ball, the proceeds of which are to be given to the Red Cross.

On example of the decorators' art since a corps of men have transformed the upper floor of the residence into an indoor garden. The walls and ceilings have been latticed in delicate ferns and greens, with a profusion of colored lights in red and yellow glimmer through the foliage. Swinging hammocks have been placed here and there decorated with Belgian flags and bells. It is here that the bridge tables are to be placed for those who prefer to spend the evening playing cards. In the Solarium of the home an orchestra will furnish music throughout the evening. Below, on the drawing room floor and in the kitchen, there will be dancing for several hundred guests. On the lower floors, gold and rose chrysanthemums are to predominate in the floral arrangements, while in the ballroom golden baskets suspend from the ceiling will contain large branches of the variegated blooms.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Moore will be assisted in greeting their guests by a group of their friends, Mrs. Vernon Kellogg, Edward Lacey, Mrs. Lacey May Hayes, Mrs. Wallace Alexander, Mrs. Harry Pendleton, Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mrs. Granville Abbott, Mrs. Herbert Hamilton Brown, Mrs. Louise Allen, Mrs. Percy Walker, Mrs. C. H. Harrison, Mrs. George Moore, Mrs. Horatio Bonestell, Mrs. James K. Moffitt, Miss Isabelle Moore and Miss Marion Ransome.

Among those who will be guests at the ball this evening are Mr. and Mrs. William Senon, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Waldron, Mrs. Churchill Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rheem, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bates Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pendleton, Dr. and Mrs. Edward W. Adlung, Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Kergan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Ede, Mr. and Mrs. Brendon Brady, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Goodfellow, Miss Downey, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Jones, Miss Allene Edoff, Frank Edoff, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Lundberg, Mr. and Mrs. James Lombard, Miss Anna Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry East Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Edlin, Mr. and Mrs. John Bell Moon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Uhl, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Black, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hillard Collins, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. L. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Boyer, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butters, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hamilton Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hennes and scores of others.

Among those who will entertain guests at dinner this evening preceding the dance are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Shockley, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Glen C. Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. J. J.

Miss Lois Myers, whose engagement to Harry Foster Hadfield was announced a short time ago, sailed yesterday for Honolulu, where she is to become the bride of Hadfield shortly after her arrival at that port. In Honolulu she will be the house guest of Mrs. Prosser Mason, wife of the former attorney-general of the island of Hawaii, and will remain in Honolulu to take place in the Episcopal church in that city. The service to be simply planned and the bride-elect to wear her traveling suit, a smart model of the latest mode. The future bride will give in marriage by her uncle, Jackson R. Myers.

Hadfield and his bride-to-be will spend their honeymoon at Kilauea. The bridegroom-elect is the owner of extensive sugar interests in the islands. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Annie A. Myers of Nevada city.

Well may the various groups of matrons and belles entertain the knitting for the "boys" in the training camps. From American Lake comes word that so cold has it been that the men have been forced to play football in their coats. So the members of informal sewing and bridge clubs (now turned into knitting clubs) are busy with their needles.

Alameda county, the platform of the City Club, meet tomorrow evening in the ballroom of Hotel Shattuck. Food conservation will be discussed under the following heads: "What the Government Proposes to Do for the Consumer," Ralph Merritt; "Problems of the Housewife," E. S. Hogan; "What Berkeley Women Are Doing to Save Food," Mrs. Ross.

The City Club will give particular attention to the retail prices of staples within their jurisdiction and an effort to keep them down. With the wholesale prices made by Food Administration Herbert Hoover as the standard.

The living issues section of Ebell with Mrs. Louis Cockroft as curator will hold an interesting session tomorrow morning with such members instructed to bring her knitting as affairs of the world are candidly discussed. Mrs. Edward Chamberlain and Mrs. H. W. Hunt will summarize the week's activities in America and Europe, followed by an open discussion. The fourth year of the war will be outlined by Mrs. Richard Kender. Mrs. Richard Froese will offer a group of the new war songs.

Campfire Girls have undertaken the sale of the Red Cross stamps this year in Berkeley. Heretofore the women's organizations have directed the holiday work which has brought the patriotic society and the Anti-Tuberculosis Society alike a welcome treasury. But the group-up are busily engaged this year with that matters pertaining to war and the maintenance of just economic conditions. Never before did they think the tremendous task of placing in the hands of the gift-giving public the attractive little stickers which roll up the dollars and help in the better work of the world. But war has changed much, even this. The Campfire Girls are eager to prove their valor. Under Mrs. Gustav Schneider of Berkeley, state president of the interesting group of young women, the drive will begin immediately. The girls are urged to have a card printed that it will be returned one and in their enthusiasm they have already won the ready loyalty of the city.

ting bees), meet regularly, to knit garments for those in camp. One Thanksgiving gift presented by one of the local brides-elect to a group of the boys at American Lake is a hundred pounds of raisins from the ranch of her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hennes will entertain the guests of the evening, to be Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton White. Mrs. White will leave for the east November 22 to be the guest of her parents. Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Lamson, whose home is now in New York. En route east she will visit friends at Chicago.

Miss Katherine Bousfield and Miss Louisa Huntley are two of the east bay belles who are taking up a course in shorthand and stenography at a local school. Both are preparing themselves for work in the future. They should be called upon, as so many of the younger belles have been in the east. When the time comes they will not be found wanting to do their part.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Hoyt have gone east to join their daughters, Miss Beth Hoyt and Miss Doris Hoyt, who have been studying east for the past season. The Misses Hoyt are expected home for the holidays, accompanied by their parents.

Tomorrow afternoon Miss Juliet Atwater will entertain about twenty-four guests at bridge and tea. Her guests of honor to be Miss Margaret Boveroux and Mrs. C. H. Harrison (Emily Cockerton). The appointments of the affair are to be very informal.

Mr. and Mrs. John McCandless sail Tuesday for the Hawaiian Islands, expecting to be away from Piedmont for several months. They divide their time between Honolulu, where McCandless has extensive interests and their home in the east bay side.

In honor of Mrs. Walter Shockley of Berkeley, who is soon to leave for Reno, Nev., Mrs. Prescott Coolidge entertained guests on Monday afternoon at her home. The affair was in the nature of a farewell tea.

Mrs. Selim Woodworth and Miss Dorothy Woodworth are now in Washington, D. C., and will remain in the East for an indefinite period. Both Selim and Wethered Woodworth have entered the service.

The luncheon which Miss Elsie Bishop was to have given yesterday for Miss Ida Henshaw has been postponed. Miss Bishop had planned a delightful afternoon affair for her friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bishop in Alameda.

Cards from the East announce the arrival of a baby son in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Fox, the little one having made his advent to the world in Salt Lake City, where Mrs. Fox and her mother, Mrs. Ella Musser, are staying at present. The boy is named Mayland C. Fox II, and is the second child in the family, the first born having been a little daughter.

For the benefit of the Red Cross, a large bridge party is to be given Thursday afternoon November 22, at the Twentieth Century Club in Berkeley, one hundred tables to be placed in the ballroom. Mrs. Robert Hopkins, president of the club, assisted by the members, are completing arrangements for a delightful affair. The hostesses include Mrs. John Lum, Mrs. William C. Fox, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Frederick Muhs, George Towle, Mrs. Chester Penoyer, Mrs. Frank M. Avery, Mrs. Claire Kellogg, Mrs. W. G. Bruen and Mrs. Frank Paul.

'ZIONISM' IS TOPIC

Prof. Felix Frankfurter of Harvard university will speak Sunday evening in Temple Emanuel, San Francisco, on "Zionism and Democracy." The professor Frankfurter is assistant to the secretary of war, and is serving as counsel and executive secretary to the President's Commission to adjust labor disputes. He is the author of the executive order of the general Zionist affairs, and is in close touch with the movement to establish a homeland for the Jewish people in Palestine. He will speak under the auspices of the Zionist Bureau of the Pacific Coast, Marvin Lowenthal director. The public is invited.

PRAISE FOR PARKS

Jay B. Nash, acting superintendent of playgrounds, returned today from a three weeks' tour of Eastern cities, where he investigated conditions along the lines of physical recreation. "Oakland playgrounds are far above the average in Eastern cities," he said. "Even in New York there are only two playgrounds that size up to the average recreation parks in Oakland."

WOMEN ACCUSED

"Babe" Myers and Anita Myers were arrested last night at Eleventh and Washington streets, by Patrolman Watz and Canning on two federal grand jury indictments charging them with selling flour to soldiers and of soliciting within five miles of a military post. The raid was made at the home of the Myers family on 824 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich.—Advertisement.

The Doctor, his Wife, Uncle Sam's Food Bulletin, and the Clock.

by Anna Katherine Green.

Having seen and made up her mind about the husband, she next sought to see and gauge the wife. A mutual interest sprang up between them which led very speedily to actual friendship.

The results were the following naive reports which drifted into her employer's office from day to day, as this intimacy deepened:

"The doctor is settling into a deep melancholy, from which he tries to rise, at times, but with only indifferent success. Yesterday he rode around to all his patients for the purpose of withdrawing his services on the plea of illness. But he still keeps his office open."

"Zabriskie takes his wife, but in a way torturing to himself and to her. If she is gone from the house he is wretched, and yet when she returns he often forbears to speak to her, or if he does speak it is with a constraint that hurts her, but with only indifferent success. Yesterday he rode around to all his patients for the purpose of withdrawing his services on the plea of illness. But he still keeps his office open."

"I am an ardent admirer of woman, Zabriskie is supposed to be a man of her sex, but whether this is the result of only a manifestation of sentiment, I have as yet been unable to determine. I have before me two visions of mental suffering. At noon he passed the office door, and looking within, saw the figure of Dr. Zabriskie seated in his great chair, lost in thought. His hands rested upon the arms of the chair, and his head was bowed. I detected a woman's glove, which I had noticed in a woman's hand, as one of the women who had been with him this morning. I stood for a full minute watching him, till an irresistible sense of the shame of this spying upon a blind man in his moments of secret anguish compelled me to withdraw. But now before I have a features relax in a storm of passionate feeling, as he raised his head and looked at me. The other picture was more tragic still. I was seeing Mrs. Zabriskie in her own room, when I caught a fleeting vision of a woman who had been with him this morning. I stood for a full minute watching him, till an irresistible sense of the shame of this spying upon a blind man in his moments of secret anguish compelled me to withdraw. ## BUSINESS NOTICE

PROF. J. H. AUSTIN

Famous Bacteriologist, Hair, Scalp and Beauty Specialist of Nation-wide Fame.

WILL BE AT KAHN'S ALL THIS WEEK

Consult personally with this great professor, who has had thirty-eight years' experience as a hair specialist, and who has won medals and recognition for his work in both Europe and America.

—Owing to the great demand for Prof. Austin by the big cities of the country, his engagement at Kahn's will have to be limited—so take this opportunity of consulting the professor now.

—Prof. Austin says that using dandruff cures, mange cures, etc., without the proper advice is like taking medicine without knowing what you are trying to cure. He has a particular trouble with which your hair or scalp is afflicted—and there are many of them—must be known before it can be intelligently treated. For example, one person may require an astringent, another a healing ointment and another an antiseptic for an itching scalp, and still another something to relieve an excessively oily condition.

IF YOU HAVE

- Itching Scalp
- Falling Hair
- Excessively Oily Hair
- Dry and Brittle Hair
- Dandruff
- Split Hair
- Faded Hair

—With the aid of powerful compound microscope, Prof. Austin is able to quickly determine the exact cause of the trouble, and will tell each one what is best to do in his or her particular case.

—Both men and women are invited to take advantage of a free examination by Professor Austin. Women need not take down their hair for the examination. His office hours are from 10 to 12 in the morning and 2 to 4 in the afternoon. Private office: Main floor, Kahn's Drug Department.

News of the Churches

Within the next few days a meeting will be held by the preliminary committee for the Christmas celebration at the county infirmary. This committee consists of the following:

Lieutenant-Governor Arthur H. Breed, chairman; Rev. Alexander Allen, treasurer; Rev. Francis J. Van Horn, County Auditor E. F. Garrison, S. H. Thompson, William Hamilton, secretary of the Oakland Lodge of Moose; S. M. Burritt, Captain W. A. Day, Ed E. Eull, A. Miller and Harrison S. Robinson, Dr. Susan Fenton and Mrs. N. Nelson have been appointed as a nucleus for a women's committee.

The churches of Alameda county have signified their intention of assisting in every way possible in raising funds for the Christmas celebration, and several of the fraternal organizations will also help. Several of the Young People's Societies of the churches will knit shawls and will make bed slippers for some of the aged women at the infirmary.

It has been estimated that ten cents contributed by each church member in Alameda county will raise sufficient funds to help the biggest Christmas celebration that the county infirmary has ever witnessed.

For this purpose coin boxes, donated by the Zellerbach Paper Company, will be placed in each church and in the club rooms of the fraternal organizations which have pledged their assistance in remembering Alameda county's unfortunate in the midst of war charities, Red Cross work and the many other claims on the attention of pocketbooks.

The TRIBUNE church editor will give information concerning the Christmas celebration at the infirmary and donations may be left at his office between 7:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. daily, except Saturday and Sunday. Checks are to be made payable to the committee treasurer, Rev. Alexander H. Allen.

FORM STAG CLUB.

Following are the girls' classes, the young men's older high school classes of the First M. E. Sunday school will meet on November 27 at the church in the evening to organize a Stags' club. In charge of the movement are Bob Hutchinson, Roy Thompson, Walter Bunker and George Campbell.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

The Vallejo Presbyterian Christian Endeavor society has won first honors in the new society standards. This society is the first to report its racing and finds that it has the 100 per cent rate. The Vallejo Presbyterian C. E. union was California's first gold seal society at the Stockton convention and not only had 200 points during the year but went to Riverside last July with 215 points.

TO OFFER PLAY.

Indications show that there will be at least 200 at the play to be given by the church of the First M. E. church of Alameda, tomorrow evening. Miss A. Toye's Sunday school class has sold 35 tickets, but the highest individual seller up to Sunday night was Harold Elliott with 22 sold. Evelyn Bennett and Bertha Perry are next with 19 each. On Sunday night there were 135 tickets sold or promised.

BERKELEY BAPTIST.

Tomorrow at 8 p. m. a cornerstone and conversation party will be held at the Martin home, 1084 Mariposa, Northbrae. All members of the cornerstone and study class of the Berkeley First Baptist church with their husbands or escorts have been invited.

LADIES' AID.

The Ladies' Aid of the First M. E. church have eleven sewing machines busy sewing for the Red Cross. They meet every Thursday from 10 to 4.

BARACA-PHILATHEA.

The First Baptist Baracas on October 21 challenged the Philathea class to a contest for membership. The Philathea accepted the challenge to begin the contest October 23 and close the first Sunday in January.

PRESBYTERIAN.

At the First Presbyterian church, November 19 to 23, will be observed as "Our Country for Humanity" week. Special services will be held Wednesday, November 21, with special speakers to be announced later. For Sunday donations of fruit, cereals, can goods, etc., will be solicited.

BAPTIST CHOR.

F. A. Woodward, director of the choir of First Baptist church, is calling special attention to choir practice each Friday evening at 7:45 sharp. The Union Thanksgiving day services will be held at this church and rehearsals for the Christmas services of this church will start this week. Saturday the choir will have a social evening and dinner at the church.

FATHER'S-MOTHER'S NIGHT.

Friday at 8 p. m., father's and mother's night will be held by the intermediate department of the Bible school of the First Presbyterian church at which time the following short addresses will be given: "Our Fathers," Margaret Murray; "Our Mothers," Curtis Wilson; "Our Girls," Mrs. Ben Small; "Our Boys," William Kearns; "Our School," F. M. Greenwood; "The Relation of the Parent to the Sunday School," Rev. K. G. Murray; "Our Church," F. M. Slesley.

REV. DONAH TO WAR.

Since Rev. A. S. Donah of First Congregational church has been called to service, the pastor, Rev. Frances J. Van Horn becomes acting superintendent of the church school until a new superintendent can be found.

THE GIRLS' CLUB.

Tuesday evening the girls of the Sunday school classes taught by Misses Neville Dukes and Genevieve Scoville, and Madeline A. Parson, Ruby Wright, John S. Dunsen, and F. Marcom of the First M. E. church, will meet at the church at 8 p. m. to organize "The Girls' Club." The movement is under leadership of Mrs. Earl Menker, and is to centralize the social action of these groups.

ARREDEDOR CLASS.

The following officers were elected at the last monthly meeting of the Arrededor class of Grace M. E. church: President, Miss Gladys Potter; vice-president, Miss Gladys Odell; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Walter Finn. Plans were discussed for future work for the soldiers.

"I made these with one small can of Cottolene"
A housekeeper's real experience

Drawing (from the original photograph) by Benj. Story

I was surprised to find how very much farther Cottolene went than other shortenings I had used.

My one small can of Cottolene made all these perfectly delicious things:-

- 1 Marble Cake
- 13 Biscuits
- 13 Tea Biscuits
- 1 Mince Pie
- 1 Apple Pie
- 2 doz. Tarts
- 8 Cup Cakes
- 4 doz. Cookies
- 1 Thanksgiving Pudding
- 1 doz. Croquettes (deep-fried). This Cottolene can be used over and over for other deep frying.

What I Saved
I found that I had saved the entire cost of my Cottolene and 22 cents besides.

I decided my small can of Cottolene should make a Thanksgiving feast of "delicious economy."

Until I tried I would not have believed anyone could enjoy making a short purse go so long a way.

I thought I knew something about Cottolene before I made this particular experiment. But now I can tell you almost anything you want to know about Cottolene: How rich it is. How much farther it goes. What famous results it brings in your "fine" as well as your "every-day" baking and frying.

The recipes which I chose were inviting and inexpensive.

Then I used one-third less of Cottolene than I would have used of butter or other shortening called for in the recipes. And I was so proud of the results, including the economy, that I had my Thanksgiving feast photographed.

That's their "picture" at the top.

Of course the "proof of the pudding" is in the eating—not in the photography. And if these cakes, cookies, pudding, pies and tarts, croquettes and biscuits could speak, I am sure they would all say "Use Cottolene." For each one has its individual story of richness and wholesomeness; of crispy, flaky flavoriness; of cooking more appetizing and digestible than ever before. All linked together in delightful economy.

For all were made without expensive butter—with one small can of rich, economical Cottolene.

And, now, you too can prove this "delicious economy" in your baking. You can easily discover for yourself:

(1) That Cottolene makes cakes which butter might well be proud of.

(2) That Cottolene takes the place of butter and all other shortenings in baking and frying.

(3) That foods "deep-fried" in Cottolene are wholesome and digestible.

And I think you will find as I have that nothing can take the place of Cottolene economy in your kitchen.

On this page I am giving the recipe I used for my Thanksgiving pudding. Try it and see how delicious economical cooking can be.

Recipe for Thanksgiving Pudding

¾ cup Cottolene 1½ level teaspoons salt 1½ cups seeded and 1 cup molasses 1 teaspoon cinnamon shredded raisins 1 cup buttermilk ¼ teaspoon cloves ½ cup currants 3 cups flour ½ teaspoon spice 3 tablespoons flour 1 level teaspoon soda ½ teaspoon nutmeg for dredging fruit

Cream Cottolene. Add molasses and milk. Sift flour, soda, salt and spices together; add gradually to first mixture; beat thoroughly. Mix raisins and currants; dredge with flour and add to batter; mix well. Turn into well-greased tube mould; fill two-thirds full; place on well-greased cover. Surround with boiling water. Steam three hours. Serve with hot sauce.

What Is the A. B. C.?

A. B. C. What is it? An organization founded for the benefit of newspaper space buyers. A. B. C. stands for Audit Bureau of Circulations. It is the business of the A. B. C. to verify the circulation claims of its members. Twice a year the A. B. C. goes through the TRIBUNE's circulation books, so that it can place before the advertiser a clean and concise report based upon its circulation investigation. The A. B. C. tells you how many copies of the newspaper are printed, paid for and distributed, and any newspaper may avail themselves of this audit.

The TRIBUNE is the only Oakland paper that has permitted this examination.

Berkeley Branch Office of The TRIBUNE is now located at 2011 Shattuck Avenue.

Bookbinding at The TRIBUNE Office.

Use the Milk that Saves the Sugar

A spoonful of Eagle Brand in your coffee or tea gives you all the cream you need—and saves the sugar you would otherwise use.

For Eagle Brand contains the purest milk and the finest cane sugar, bubbled together in the original Borden way to make it doubly delicious.

The use of Eagle Brand in your coffee and tea is economical—you'll notice the difference in the monthly bills. And besides, it gives a new delicious taste to these beverages that you can't get any other way.

Eagle Brand adds flavor to economy—it's the milk that saves the sugar. Try it tomorrow and taste the new flavor.

THE COST OF NEGLIGENCE.

Official negligence has resulted in the disuse of the $97,000 municipal dredger for the last six months and damages to this valuable piece of public property which render it useless for a further indefinite period and which will involve a considerable outlay of public funds to repair.

Aside from the unwarranted expense of maintaining the full crew of the dredger while it was out of commission, the loss of the services of the dredger at this time is a misfortune. It is needed to complete the city's contract to dredge the western harbor near the Albers Brothers' milling company and in fulfilling the obligations which the city council proposes to assume in disposing of sections of the western waterfront to private interests.

Of course the repairs to the dredger will have to be made forthwith. The dredging work must go on and it has been demonstrated that the work can be performed far more economically by the municipal equipment than under private contract.
Where will the funds for the extra expense come from? Will they be taken from an appropriation for the improvement of an East Oakland street or will some other necessary public project have to

FREEDOM AT THE JAIL.

The county grand jury yesterday reported that evidence laid before it justified the conclusion that Charles Meyers was guilty of making himself at home among the prisoners at the county jail for the purpose of fleeing them of their money on the strength of promises to secure their release. Yet the grand jury under the law, because Meyers is not a county official, is not empowered to indict this offender.

This is a regrettable limitation to the powers of the inquisitorial body. The grand jury was able, however, to ascertain that the sheriff and other county officials were ignorant of the practices of the man who had been given the freedom of the jail and were not responsible for his offenses.

In this connection the grand jury report is highly informative if impotent. It acquaints the county officers with the character and purposes of one who has turned his friendship with the sheriff to illegal profit. Officials responsible for the proper conduct of the county jail now know that Meyers is not a fit person to have the complete freedom of that institution.

And from this information the county officials may formulate a general rule for future safety. A known crook, regardless of his friendship for an official, should be forbidden access to county prisoners except when he comes with a commitment from the courts or upon a legitimate mission to be executed under the personal supervision of a responsible jail official.

"SUFFRAGE PICKETS"

A recrudescence of picketing of the White House has landed some widely known women in jail at Washington. Their principal object in violating the law was to attain for their names that publicity which an arrest would bring. But they are really of no more importance to the average, conscientious, straight-thinking citizen at this time than any one else whose name might be on the police register.

The moral and mental aspects of the act which led to the suffrage pickets' arrest are not a bit less, appealing than the crime of any other inmate of the jails. The White House pickets have violated the law without any purpose in sight, but solely in a spirit of viciousness.

President Wilson's stand on the suffrage question has been made known to every citizen of the country. He is opposed to federal action, but he is actively in favor of it through the several States.
In the last New York election he sent a message to the men of that State asking their support of suffrage for women and the proposition carried by nearly 100,000 votes. The President has said time and again that his mind is closed to all appeals for federal action and he has also pointed out that the party of which he is the leader is against the federal suffrage amendment.

Consequently the pickets have nothing on which to excuse their conduct except the spirit of the common knave, the foolish hoodlum or the vulgar notoriety seeker.

FORBIDDEN ACTS.

Prof. Alfred Forke of the faculty of the University of California has worked himself into such a frenzy over the signing of the new agreement between the United States and Japan that he has let himself commit serious indiscretions of speech and judgment. Moreover, he has given the university and the State authorities cause to question their own discretion in retaining him longer in the public education service. Among other things, in an interview in the San Francisco Bulletin, Prof.
Forke says:

"The agreement is fatal for China in that the United States definitely recognizes Japan's special interests in China. This is just another important political move of Japan to further her already predominating power. Japan at present rules China.
The Chinese really have no power; their outward policies are under the dominance of Japan. China would never have entered the war had not Japan forced her."

These few phrases contain enough untruth to constitute a serious indictment of any person's fitness for educational work. Japan does not rule China. The Chinese have a real power and the exclusive power to govern themselves as they elect, for which see the late revolutions. China was not forced to enter the war by Japan, but came in admittedly at the request of the allied powers, among which the United States was the chief and most influential spokesman in advising China; Japan had no special desire to see China qualify to sit in at the coming peace conferences, and only passively consented. These are conditions of fact and not matters of opinion. Prof. Forke's utterance is in tune with the well-known efforts of one Baron Speck von Sternberg, who twelve years ago, on behalf of Kaiser Wilhelm, tried to prevent Secretary of State
John Hay from moving in the interest of Chinese integrity.

Prof. Forke has been in the United States about three years, having come here from Berlin. Formerly he was professor of Chinese at the Seminar Für Orientalische Sprachen of Berlin. He has considerable reputation as an Orientalist. He has contributed to scientific journals essays on the "Epicurean Yang Chu," the Chinese Sophists, Wang Ch'ung's ideas on death and immortality, etc., and is the author of a somewhat pretentious volume of translations of the essays of Wang Ch'ung, published under the title of "Lun-Heng" at Leipzig in 1907.
Wang Ch'ung was born A. D. 27, was an iconoclast, skeptical and materialist and assailed the orthodoxy of the Chinese religious philosophy by bitter attacks upon the teachings of Lao-Tse, Mencius and Confucius. He was one of the most naively interesting liars of all times, and a sour and fickle con-troversialist. These characteristics may account for the translation of Wang Ch'ung's essays proving amiable work for Prof. Forke. The latter has never exhibited a profound knowledge of modern Oriental politics.

There is another phase of Prof. Forke's criticism which may best be illustrated by example. In the winter of 1914-1915, when the indignation of the world against Germany on account of the outrages in Belgium was great and still increasing in volume, ninety-three German professors, having given their souls into slavery of the German philosophy of militarism and autocracy, sent a signed message out to the world saying, "It is not true that we wronged Belgium." In the August before Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg had stated to the Reichstag and in the hearing of the whole world, in reference to the violation of Belgium's neutrality, "the wrong—I speak openly—that we are committing," etc., and about the same time the Kaiser had sent an autographed memorandum to President Wilson stating that he "had to violate" Belgium's neutrality.

Subsequently postcards were circulated throughout Germany bearing the following excerpt from the Kaiser's notoriously savage speech:

"Give no quarters, take no prisoners. Let all who fall into your hands be at your mercy. Make yourself as terrible as the Huns under Attila."

Thinking to smooth over the mistake the emperor had made, these professors signed another statement, reading: "It is not true that our soldiers ever injured the life of a single Belgian."

We have previously referred to German savants who have proven their ready willingness to devote their standing as scholars and to prostitute their international good name in the cause of Prussian domination and the futile effort to excuse the atrocities of civilization's enemy. Their intellectual subservience and their moral cowardice have brought shame to every university professor in this country.

We do not charge that Prof. Alfred Forke of the University of California belongs either to the ninety-three cringing scoundrels in Germany or among the agents of kaiserdom in our own country.
But he has shown, by his criticism of the American Japanese understanding, how one may qualify for that unenviable distinction.

When the United States entered the war, Prof.
Forke wanted to go home, but pleasant travel accommodations could not be guaranteed. But this does not excuse him in ignoring the injunction to enemy alien residents to refrain from acts and speech hostile to the purposes of the American government. Attempts to spread discord among our allies are specially prohibited.

"Burdens of bakers are to be reduced." Please,
Mr. Hoover, let this wait until the price of bread is reduced to a legitimate level.

NOTES and COMMENT

Patriotic outburst by the Reading Searchlight: "Down with pretzels and hamburger, up with Scotch whisky and French pastry, or any other allied product!"

By rounding up and registering those alien enemies who are constantly tipping off the affairs here to the Kaiser the country ought to be cleared of traitors after a while, or at least a good working knowledge obtained as to their identity.

The wire brings the news that Knowles N. Mills has been appointed postmaster at Hipass, California.
Now, then, where is Hipass?

It was thought to be too easy, that open door agreement between Secretary Lansing and the Japanese, and now comes Professor Agassiz and says it will be fatal to China. The Chinese themselves are voicing protest.
Anything that comes easy with Japanese diplomats is to be scrutinized.

Although Thanksgiving falls on Thursday as usual, and although Thursday is an icecreamless day by dead reckoning, there is to be special dispensation that will except it, and the tofodish is to grace the groaning table that figures so prominently on the day we "fast" and give thanks.

Suggestion from the Fresno Mirror:
"San Francisco should extend the right hand of fellowship to New York.
New York returned Tammany to power, and San Francisco elected Eugene Schmitz supervisor. Arcades ambo."

On the authority of the Calaveras Prospect: "Mr. and Mrs. Tanner had a very pleasant trip to Florida and San Jose, but came home with colds, even the baby was so afflicted."

The announced decision of labor leaders to stop strikes on government work was promptly responsive to the appeal of the President. It is hoped they will be equal to the patriotic task.

Endless chain letters have singular possibilities, and as they have been adapted to unpatriotic purposes they have been ruled out of the mails.
Besides seditious use, they lend themselves to general fraud. The novelty of the device is its chief attraction, and the inhibition is a proper protection of the public.

Dudley Field Malone figures among the lady packers who have been so much in evidence at the White House

he does not run true to form.

The Coronado Strand tells why Andy is glad to get back: "Andy Ross is back from Chicago and the news is that he is a success."
Andy says he is mighty glad to get shake the snow off your hat every little while.

Devastated Belgium and the des-poiled inhabitants of northeastern France haven't much to be thankful for, but if the accounts are true they can realize that if they were in Petrograd just about this time they would be worse off.

From what gets published it might be inferred that as to municipal finances in the neighboring city it is now that period vaguely defined as
"after the deluge." Just before election was the hilarious time when money was voted in a lordly way, but now the piper has to be paid, and that is always a serious occasion.

The I W W are not having it any too sumptuous. The occurrence in Oklahoma and the more recent instance at Omaha attest this fact. In other days it might have been thought by some that they were being put upon, but it is to be remembered that these are extraordinary times, when a nation in peril can't stop to fool with criminals and cranks.

Tight skirts are probably in vogue over the Rhine at this juncture. Over there they have to go shopping with "cloth cards," and materials are necessarily scarce. That is not the reason why skirts used to be narrow and are now short in this land, but it is a good reason, if there has to be a reason.

The police are at instant attention when anybody says "peace meeting."
The one to be held at Biack Hall next

SPIRIT OF THE STATE PRESS

Alex Reynolds, cashier of the United States National Bank, found a pearl the other day. In its native state it must have been a wonderful specimen. But when Reynolds discovered it the pearl had been cooked.
It was in a fried oyster with which the well-known banker had been served in a local cafe—San Diego

All of the so-called "enemy aliens" employed by contractors at Mare Island were discharged this week, it is announced. Which gives rise to a very pertinent inquiry: Why were they ever permitted to be employed?
Imagine a German contractor on a war vessel at Wilhelmshaven being permitted to hire American workmen—Santa Rosa Republican.

Most of the squirrels are natives, but they are just as much a pest to the farmer and just as much an enemy as if they were hyphenated and born in Germany. We must not nurse the delusion that all our enemies are Huns. We have some enemies at home yet, and we must not get so enthusiastic over the war as to forget to eradicate such little enemies as squirrels and Argentine ants—Stockton Record.

FAREWELL, BACON

How do you like yours—cut thick and blinking reflectively in its own comfortable grease or sliced into thin seductive curls of a dryness ineffable?
Whichever be the choice, it were well to gratify that craving once more and have done, lest bacon the beloved vanish utterly from the knowledge of man. It is with alarm that the bacon fancier notes the inclusion of his dear desire in the list of things to be conserved, and his fears are not allayed by reading of a restaurant located in a stronghold of the Pennsylvania Dutch, which now requests its patrons, via the menu, not to order the delicacy—the inference being that they won't get it even if they should disregard the courteous request.

O Bacon, where may we find a substitute up unto thee? Our loss will be a soldier's gain, for which reason we kiss the rod and obey, but what a sacrifice! Down the long series of workday mornings, silently snowy or musical with summer's birdsongs, we face a procession of breakfast eggs unrelieved, unadorned, unvaried by a single curl of bacon. What campfires innumerable, will burn and die, what picnic meals be eaten, at which fragrant memories of the dear departed will combine with the wood smoke to dim the vision and start the tears!
If the war be prolonged, the coming generation may have to attain its majority without learning the palpitant joy of a sizzling the elusive slice at the end of a stick and then popping it between the wings of a roll for immediate use—repeat ad infinitum.

There is no fragrance like that of frying bacon. There never will be one that rivals it. It would call one back from the brink of the Styx, Charon's canoe in full sight. It can do more than that—it can get folks up in the morning. Therefore, when that enticing siren scent no longer wings its way from the kitchenette clear into the maternal dream, it is a safe bet that more than one person is going to roll over and go to sleep again. Then how will the world wage on—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

SCREW THING IN HIS MIND.

A favorite pastime of certain men of small means is to tell what fortunes they could make on the Stock Exchange if they had but a few thousands as capital to start with, reminding you of the old English song,
"If I had but a Thousand a Year."
It is an easy task to make mind bets on the price of stocks, and the prophet who tells you of how he would have made a hundred thousand if he could have had the money to buy his favorite stock is a man who does not tell you of how he would have been cleaned out if others of his rank had been actual transactions on the Stock Exchange.
Another pleasant pastime is to try to borrow money from your prosperous friends to gamble on the Exchange.

Last June a mind better was so sure of making money that he requested a loan from a friend of a trifling $10,000, without security, to invest in city of Paris bonds. "You lend me the money for two years at 5 per cent. I buy the bonds at 94. In two years the bonds are paid. The interest on the bonds pays the interest on the loan. You run no risk and I make $600." It is just possible that the would-be speculator, in view of the present price, below 90, of city of Paris bonds, is not sorry that his friend had a marble heart.—Boston Commercial Bulletin.

RUMANIANS, RUSS, PRAISED BY GOODSSELL

Bringing with him vivid impressions of the Russian revolution of the great prison camps in Russia of the invasion of Moldavia by the German hordes and of the bravery of the Rumanian army Fred F. Goodsell son of Rev. Dennis Goodsell of Berkeley, and a Y. M. C. A. field secretary, has returned here from a 14-months' stay in Russia and Rumania as a representative of the American Y. M. C. A. Goodsell will spend some time here in Y. M. C. A. work and expects to be sent back to Europe soon.

He has high praise for the Rumanians, with whom he spent six months co-operating in welfare work with Prince Carol of Rumania, chairman of the Rumanian welfare council. From what he observed of their fighting qualities, Goodsell believes the Rumanians are among the best soldiers in Europe and predicts a great "comeback" of the Rumanian army when it is fully equipped and reorganized. He was with Prince Carol at the Rumanian army headquarters at Jassy in Northern Moldavia at the time of the German invasion, and witnessed the preparations for a hasty evacuation by the Rumanians, which, however, was not necessary.

RUSS DEMORALIZED.
Russian soldiers appeared to be badly demoralized, according to Goodsell, who was in Northern Bukovina at the time of the Russian retreat from Galicia in July. He saw thousands of Russian deserters from the army on their way back from the trenches.

Before going to Rumania, Goodsell witnessed the outbreak of the Russian revolution. He was in Moscow at the time, where there was great rejoicing by the people at their new-found freedom. Hurrying to Petrograd, he found an entirely different atmosphere, due to the fact that the large German element there had succeeded in bringing about strife among the revolutionary factions.

TREAT PRISONERS WELL.
"Russia treats her prisoners well, almost as well in fact as she does her own soldiers," said Goodsell, whose Y. M. C. A. work in Russia was devoted largely to the Turkish prison camps. "The Russians are a good-natured people and do not have it in them to torture or ill-treat their prisoners. Of course, the food was scarce and the clothing was poor, but that was inevitable since food was apt to be scarce all over."

Since America entered the war the Y. M. C. A. work in these prison camps has been carried on by secretaries of Y. M. C. A.'s of neutral countries.

Autos to Be Safe During Night of Policemen's Ball

CAPTAIN J. F. LYNCH

Automobile thieves will meet their Waterloo if they endeavor to carry on their nefarious practice during the night of the policemen's ball, November 22, at the Municipal Auditorium, for the traffic bureau has been challenged to put forth its best efforts to protect the hundreds of autos which will be parked in the vicinity of the auditorium by guests of the ball.

Corporal Joseph Walman has suggested a new hat with sergeant "Bob" Forgie, and the sergeant knows what a good hat costs. If anyone succeeds in "stealing" a car on that night from that district he will be eligible to a place on the honor roll of thieves.

Arrangements have been made with the traction company to furnish adequate transportation facilities from the auditorium to different parts of the city after the ball so that guests may reach their homes without hiring conveyances if they have none of their own.

Captain J. F. Lynch, senior captain of the department and president of the "Widows' and Orphans' Aid Association," which is giving the ball for the benefit of the Oakland chapter of the Red Cross, has been working hard for the success of the affair. The spirit of the benefit has reached the department in general is endeavoring to pile up a big sum for the Red Cross.

Patrolman John Mulhern has been appointed floor manager. Under the direction of Sergeant Forgie, a dancing school for police officers has been started in the department gymnasium at the city hall, where the members go through the steps of the fox trot and other intricate movements of the terepsichorean art.

CONSUMERS MAY HAVE TO PAY FIDDLER

Will Oakland consumers pay the increased in the local commission market on food products and poultry? This is the question that today is agitating grocers and market men. While the commission men hold that the raise is so designed that their business will be conducted at the farmer must pay the increase, and that it will not affect retail prices, farmers are preparing a vigorous fight against such a move and grocers declare that it is almost impossible for a commission raise to take effect without entailing a higher cost on the ultimate consumer.

SAYS FARMER MUST PAY.
President Walter Harris of the Commission Merchants' Protective Association, declares that the raise must be borne by the farmer, and that, by regulating orders, and if farmers attempt to hold for too high prices, halt this by refusing to accept large lots, then the commission men can control the situation.

Secretary C. S. Hogan of the Retail Grocers' Association declares that the system will not work this way. "The farmer, now, when he sends in produce, demands a certain price regardless of conditions. He will continue to do this in future," said Hogan. "This means that the commission man must raise his price to the retailer to make his commission." The commission men's system worked in the case of dried beans, which have taken a decided slump. This year's crop of beans was the largest in the history of the country. The farmers have been holding them, expecting the government to fix a price. The commission men have been refusing to handle them at the prices farmers have demanded, from 10 cents a pound up, and the government has taken no action. As a result farmers, needing money, have brought down their prices, causing today's drop in the market for the commodity. Harris holds that this system will be employed in other foodstuffs.

CRITICIZES RURAL MEN.
"The farmer is hoarding and the government cannot stop him," declared Harris. "The commission men are helpless in the matter, but the new system will remedy this. I believe that for a farmer to hoard his crops for higher profits is distinctly unpatriotic. The dealer is forbidden by law to do it. The farmer should be able to do it." "The farmers have their organizations, too," said W. E. Waite, tomato grower, this morning. "We will get our price by refusing to sell at less. If the public pays more it will be the fault of the commission men."

The commission men met today to raise commissions from 10 to 15 per cent on all fruits and vegetables and from 3 to 10 per cent on eggs and poultry, as announced yesterday in The TRIBUNE. The changes will go into effect immediately. The commission men hold that it costs 1 1/2 per cent to do business, and their only chance to make profits is removed in the ban on speculation in foodstuffs.

Virgil Fox, a waiter who, with his wife, Eleanor Fox, were arrested here in August, 1915, on a forged warrant from Los Angeles, has been arrested in San Francisco on a charge of robbery in connection with a "badger" game he worked on Walter Wilkie, a real estate man of 1168 Stanyan street.

PEACE MEET HERE IS HELD IN ABEYANCE

No further steps toward holding a meeting of the People's Council for Democracy and Terms of Peace of America, the organization declared by the State Council of Defense to be "seditious and disloyal," will be made by the executive committee of that body until Scott Nearing, former university professor and the speaker of the evening is heard from it was learned today.

Nearing, who recently paid a $50 fine in Duluth, Minn., for disorderly conduct, has been twice prevented from speaking in Berkeley—once when refused the high school by the board of education, and again by Mayor Samuel C. Irving and Chief of Police August Vollmer. He was scheduled to address the members of his organization, of which he is the executive head, at Blake hall, Twelfth and Washington streets, next Tuesday.

Members of the executive committee of the organization are reluctant today as to what course of action they will pursue.

TO PREVENT MEETING.
The State Council of Defense, through its vice-chairman, A. H. Nafziger, has requested Superior Judge T. W. Harris as head of the Alameda County Council of Defense and District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes to prevent the meeting. The State Council declares the purpose of the organization is to "foment trouble and spread sedition."

Miss Anita Whitney, social worker, and member of the executive committee of the alleged disloyal organization, denied today that the People's Council was opposed to war or to the United States Government.

"Of course, we are in favor of preliminary peace terms," she said, "and we demand the right of free speech and free press. The State Council may have the power to prevent this meeting, but we do not admit they have the right. I have no statement to make as to what we intend to do about the meeting."

WOULD CHECK DISLOYALTY.
The following is the letter written to the Alameda County Council of Defense by Nafziger: "It has become notorious that the People's Council of America is a disloyal organization, engaged in developing a conspiracy to hinder and obstruct the prosecution of the war. These people have been denied the privilege of holding their disloyal meetings in various places in Southern California.

"They not only sympathize with our common enemy, but are disposed to become noisy about it. There can be but one purpose in a meeting such as that proposed in Oakland and that is to foment trouble, spread sedition and disloyalty. In view of this, I believe no such gathering should be permitted to disgrace the good name of California, and they should not be permitted to flaunt their treasonable beliefs and utterances in public meetings such as these. I earnestly request that inasmuch as permission for a similar meeting has been denied in Berkeley, that it be denied in Oakland."

"There are but two classes of people in the present crisis, the loyal and the disloyal, and I hope that these disloyal members of our community shall not be permitted to air their disloyalty in our city."

A letter in the same tone was directed to District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes of Alameda county.

Shark Skins For Shoe Leather New Source of Footwear Tested

Save your sharks! It will prevent a shoeless, purseless, leatherless existence. The warning comes not from the food administration to housewives. It is directed to zoos, South Sea Islanders, Honoluluans and society women with kitchen aquariums who are devotees of the shark. For shark-skin is about to be all the rage.

From Washington comes information that alongside of whale meat as a chafing dish delicacy is coming shark-skin as a substitute for leather. The data gathered by the government fisheries service shows not only 247,000 pounds of whale meat marketed by one concern to San Francisco, Oakland and Seattle consumers, but an increasing demand for shark hide.

The government is aiding in the work. Shark hides have been furnished to more than forty tanneries throughout the country to experiment with. Cabinet-makers in Europe have been using shark skins for bookbinding purposes for many years, and it is now believed that American sharks can be used for this purpose. All manner of federal assistance is being sought and given in the matter of a shark versus the American Public.

The latest shark story comes from Captain W. Ebisu of the Japanese schooner Nishigo Maru whose crew, headed for a month on the Pacific, amused itself by daily shark parties. Some of the skin was made into shoes and is said to be of the finest quality and possessing wearing qualities not dreamed of in the philosophy of the tannery business. Captain Ebisu has announced his intention of forming a company at Honolulu to manufacture shoes from shark skins.

FOR JOINT RATES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Proposed tariffs on joint rail and water rates must be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission before December 30 to receive consideration under the commission's order permitting increase of these rates to the level of all-rail rates during the same points. In announcing this decision today the commission revoked its former order requiring the filing of the tariffs by November 10.

YOUTH MURDERED

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—The police are investigating the mysterious murder of Frank Cuno, 15 years of age, living at 2249 Chestnut street, whose body was found floating in Tucht Harbor late this morning with a gaping wound in the top of his head. The youth was employed as a watchman on a number of boats owned by Henry A. Linane, shipping broker, 401 Hearst building. He came home Tuesday to lunch, and then dropped out of sight. The harbor

BAKER'S BODY IS FOUND AT FORT BRAGG?

Has the body of B. W. Baker, Oakland mariner and former chief engineer of the steamer Arctic, been found?

Letters received here by Secretary Henry Kroegel of the local lodge of Eagles, of which Baker was a member, indicate that it was Baker who dropped mysteriously from sight two weeks ago while his steamer was tied up at the dock at Fort Bragg. All efforts to locate him have proved unavailing.

His wife, who lives in this city, went north on the last trip to aid in the work of hunting for the missing man. Letters from the Union Lumber Company and the secretary of the Fort Bragg lodge of Eagles tell of the finding of the body of a dead man in the water at that place with a watch bearing Baker's initials. The Fort Bragg authorities are awaiting the wife's identification. If the body proves to be that of Baker, it will be brought to Oakland on the steamer on which he served as chief engineer for many years. The body was dragged and the body was found this morning.

CLASS B TEAMS IN WINTER LEAGUE STRENGTHEN LINEUPS

Fast Games Promised in Winter League For Bee Clubs Next Sunday

"Hack" Miller May Ask Release From Remmer to Join Krumb's Alameda Squad

Umpires for Sunday Games

President Jerry Lawlor has assigned the umpires to work at the following games in the Winter League next Sunday:

CLASS A—Berkeley at Alameda; Maryland Bowlers vs. Alameda. Fred Brown at Fruitvale; Southern Pacific vs. Fruitvale. Lattimer at Pittsburg; Maxwell Hardware vs. Pittsburg. Connors at Crockett; Oakland Native vs. Crockett.

CLASS B—Jack Vargas at Alameda; Crystal Laundry vs. Alameda. Buck Welch at Bushrod; Melrose Merchants vs. Santa Fe. Goranson at Peralta Park; Maxwells vs. Vitis Grays.

By EDDIE MURPHY

Followers of Class-B teams in the East Bay Cities Mid-Winter Baseball League are due to see some more of those exciting games which have been played by the "Bee" league teams during the first two weeks of the season. Of the three games scheduled to be played in the Class-B division Sunday, there is not one that gives any sign of being a one-sided affair, but instead they all promise to be all closely contested affairs.

The big game of the day is slated to take place at Alameda at 2 o'clock when the Crystal Laundry and Alameda Merchants will meet. Both teams have a perfect score after their games in the percentage columns, but the Washers have a little the better of the claim for being the leaders, as they have won two games against the Merchants' one.

A victory means quite a bit to either of these teams. Should the Alameda Merchants succeed in trimming the Washers and the Melrose Merchants beat the Santa Fe Improvers it would mean that the Washers would drop to third place at the farthest. But should the Washers win and Melrose Merchants lose, the Washers would have a lead that would hold them out in front for at least two weeks, unless the protest of last Sunday's game by the Maxwells is allowed.

NEW MEN FOR WASHERS.

Hugh Canavan, manager of Alameda and his assistant, Ed Hensley, are so sure of trimming the Washers that they are already counting the Merchants to be in first place Sunday. Manager Chilton of the Crystals says that he is going to have a stronger lineup Sunday than that with which he won the two games. He announces the addition of three men to his club in Louie Boyer, Manuel Correa and Kiggins. Boyer is to be used at third base which Chilton figured his weakest spot on the team, while Correa will be used as utility and Kiggins as right fielder.

He is a good right-hander who comes with a fine reputation from one of the outside towns, but as long as the Alameda continues to such as he has been there is going to be very little chance of Kiggins being started. Kiggins can also play in the outfield.

The batteries at Alameda Sunday will be Laffargue and Scorzafava for the Crystals and Dewey, McCarthy and Smith for Alameda with Jack Vargas as umpire. Ed Hensley, vice-president of the Alameda team, gives assurance that the game will start on schedule time. Last Sunday the game was nearly an hour late in starting due to football players having the field.

SHAKE-UP ON MAXWELLS.

Not being satisfied with the way his players have shown in the first two games, Manager Chris Morill of the Maxwells decided to shake up the team. Before he finished he had rid the team of George Vanni and Dewey. To give the team a stronger appearance he has added four new men bringing his roster up to the limit of fifteen players.

The new men signed are: William Kann, Gerald Altschul, Leonard M. Tifer and E. Shanahan. Morill has not announced the positions in which they will play but says they will be seen in action Sunday when the Maxwells meet Vitis Grays at Peralta Park (St. Joseph's Academy).

Dewey always had the reputation of being a good fielder and hitter, but for some reason he has had a hard time in both classes in the past month. It was Dewey's fielding and poor base running that had much to do with the loss of the game last Sunday.

NEW PLAYERS FOR VITTS.

Joe Vitti, manager of the Vitis Grays, has also done a little strengthening to his team by signing Red Gelfin, last season with Lawlor's All Stars; Eddie Kenna of the Mayrose Butlers; H. Morlan, a pitcher of the Cannon Kings; and Hughes, a brother now with the Grays and who has been playing with the Melrose Butlers.

Gelfin will be used in the outfield, and if necessary, he can go into the box and take his turn as pitcher. His reputation of being a good one at fooling the batters. Ask Jerry Lawlor; Hughes will be used in the utility role, while Morlan will be given a chance on the mound now and then.

In Eddie Kenna, Vitti appears to have the class of the catcher in the Class-B league. Kenna was at one time mascot for the Grays and during that time he picked up quite a bit about catching from Walter Schmidt.

SECOND AL WALTERS.

It was always Kenna's ambition to be a catcher and that is what he looked on with the Grays as he wanted to get in with someone who could give him some pointers. He has been playing with Louie Boyer all summer and there is no amateur that has it on him when it comes to catching.

His eye on this youngster has been on him since he was a second Al Walters. The game between the Grays and Alameda will start at 2 o'clock, with Gillispie leaving them for the Grays and probably Oakes O'Connor for Maxwells. Goranson will be the indicator for the Melrose Merchants.

MELROSE VS. IMPROVERS.

The third game in the "Bee" league is scheduled at Bushrod between the Melrose Merchants and the Santa Fe Improvers at 1:30. Although the Improvers have not broken into the win column they are a ball team that will be in the running all the time. Manager Campbell has the players there and they need it in the start. Just when things looked bright for them to break into last Sunday old Junior Plavins spoiled their chance.

It was a case of the sixth man, with two on the bases and one out, Louie Fonseca, the Improver, was called in at a great rate, not allowing a hit up to that time.

The Melrose Merchants have not been scored against in sixteen innings, which tells just how good a team they are. Home has hit Dutch Koster will do the pitching for the Merchants and will be opposed by Louie Fonseca. It should be a great game and there will be a big crowd of eager spectators.

Improvers are big favorites. But Welch has been selected by the Santa Fe to do the pitching.

Manager Chilton of the Vitis Grays has released Rizzo to the Santa Fe Improvers and Campbell has released him behind the bat.

Chris Morill, manager of the Maxwells, has promised a big battle for the boys play. He is looking for a big crowd and a big game.

Manager Hunt of the Southern Pacific says that he is going to give the other managers a big surprise before Sunday. Hunt is going to a town in the game with a crowd of 1000.

New York Is Today Lesson For Fighters

Boxing at Complete Standstill as Result of Shady Methods of Those in the Game.

BY H. C. HAMILTON, United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The boxing law, under the protection of which boxers have allegedly boxed for several years in New York, expires today and boxing doubtless will be at a complete standstill.

It is not believed here among the best informed followers of the ring game that an attempt will be made to evade the law by the boxers. The law, in fact, has been advised not to attempt membership plans of standing bouts, because there seemingly does not exist a loop hole that would permit the slightest evasion.

The law that repealed the Fawley act holds seconds, trainers, promoters and boxers liable to punishment for a misdemeanor if they should engage in a "fight" without weapons in New York state, and even provides punishment for newspapers publishing challenges for such bouts. Every effort has been made to reduce to a minimum, chances for club contests and Governor Whitman is set strongly against any such bouts. His stand will make certain that every point within the state will be protected by sheriffs or police against infringement.

There has been the case of the Fawley law protecting the weak efforts of the fighters. It would be possible then to spend the time in a ring rapping in circles without any damage to reputation.

Club fights under these conditions would be vastly preferable to the use of the Fawley law, which permitted boxers to stall as long as they desired, even though the fight was being fought in a sense. That was the main trouble with the old bill—it didn't permit decisions, and consequently enabled boxers to spend the time in a ring rapping in circles without any damage to reputation.

Fremont High's Opponents Have Not Been Scored Upon

School Game Looks Like Hard Battle—College Athletic Gossip

Although the rugby followers are looking for the Fremont team to walk all over the San Mateo boys in the semi-final game for the State championship game at Lincoln Park, Alameda, Saturday afternoon, Coach Blesse of Fremont is busily engaged in trying to impress on his team that the peninsula boys are a strong aggregation. Blesse does not share the popular belief that the San Mateo team will be easy pickings for the local champions, and cites that the transbay boys have not yet been scored on this year.

In spite of Blesse's pessimism, the fans are looking forward to the meeting of Lick-Wilmerding and Fremont for the championship. The Lick team must settle with both Hitchcock and Stockton teams before reaching the finals, but there is little doubt but that they will turn the trick. The high school authorities are not making any plans for the Lick-Wilmerding vs. Fremont game until those teams have actually eliminated all other opponents. At present it is expected that the game will take place a week from Saturday. Following this the annual all-star game between teams from San Francisco and Alameda county will be played in San Francisco on Thanksgiving day. Saturday's game between San Mateo and Fremont will take place at Lincoln Park, beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

MARINES HERE THANKSGIVING.

The bay cities are not to be passed up on American football for Thanksgiving day, according to plans nearly completed for a big contest between the Mare Island Marines and St. Mary's College. Although the Marines have already given the local colleges a beating, that was before the confidence of a win over California was given that a California player used steel spikes in the St. Mary's game in the hands of The Tribune Sporting Department. The exhibit is of steel all right, but does not in the least resemble a spike. It is a steel ankle brace which is enclosed in the leather of a patent shoe used by the California football team. The ankle brace in Brown's shoe in some way broke during the contest and came out from its leather case. The piece of steel was removed from the shoe when it was discovered and was taken in charge by the referee. Charles Voltz afterward turned it over to the writer. Both St. Mary's College and California requested that the real facts of the case be presented to the public, and here they are.

U. C. AND U. S. C. BABES MEET.

The local football morsel for Saturday is the game between the Freshmen of the University of California and University of Southern California. Reports from the Southland are to the effect that the U. S. C. babes are every bit as good as the variety of that school. It is common knowledge that the University of California team is the equal of the best variety eleven, so the local contest should be a good one.

The California varsity team is today on its way to Eugene, Ore., where on Saturday Andy Smith's boys will go up against the University of Oregon team. Following this game the Bears will come home and practice for their game on Thanksgiving day against the University of Southern California at Los Angeles.

With the fast end of the football season still occupying the fans, basketball teams of the colleges and high schools are getting into form. And in spite of the fact there should be some good games in the future, California has been pretty badly crippled through the loss of Bud and Harp. Bud is the star guard and Harp is the star forward. They have hopes of building a good team around John Smith and Floodberg. The former was on the varsity for last year as a guard and Floodberg was a regular guard throughout the winter. Both were one of the best forwards on the coast last season. It is already practicing his shot. Olsen, halfback on basketball team, and a veteran in basketball, will be a center for the team. ## Veteran Coast Heaver Has Won More Than He Lost Against All But One Club

Bill Prough's Four-Year Record Shows He Has Lost More to All Clubs

By Carl E. Brazier.

The six games which the Angels won from Spiller Baum during this last season gave the Angels the odd game in the records against Baum for the last four seasons. Also these games spoil Baum's record of having won more than he has lost against every club for the last four years that he has been with the Angels. The Angels have won 17 and lost 16 games against Baum in the last four years. Oakland has been Baum's chief victim in four years, he having won 25 and lost only 8 games to the Oaks in that time. Salt Lake won seven games from Baum in 1915; Los Angeles won six games against him last season and six in 1916. No other club has won more than four games from Baum in any one of the last four years.

Baum's record for the last four years shows that he has won 105 games and lost 84 for the Angels. In 1914 he won 21 and lost 12; in 1915 he won 30 and lost 15; in 1916 he won 20 and lost 20, and in 1917 he won 24 and lost 17. His record by years for victories and defeats against each club is as follows:—(the record of the Sacramento Club in 1914 is listed under Salt Lake which succeeded the capital city in the league).

W. L.	W. L.	W. L.	W. L.	W. L.	W. L.
1914.....	2 1	3 1	2 3	3 4	2 4
1915.....	5 2	8 3	5 2	4 7	7 2
1916.....	5 6	6 3	4 3	3 4	3 4
1917.....	3 6	6 2	5 2	3 4	7 3

Totals.....16 17 25 8 17 10 18 36 19 13

The Oaks have never won more than three games in a year against Baum. Since he came over from the Angels, Baum on the other hand, won eight games from the Oaks in 1915, and although several pitchers have equalled that record of winning eight games from one club in a season, no Coast League pitcher has beaten that mark in the last four years.

Flittery of Salt Lake equalled that mark in 1916 when he won eight games during the season from the Oaks. During the 1917 season, four pitchers broke through with eight wins against a club for the year. Harry Krause of the Oaks turned the trick against two clubs, something that no other heaver has ever done. Krause won eight games against Salt Lake, losing only two; and he won eight against Vernon, losing three. Harry also had the better of the argument with Portland during the 1917 season, winning six games and losing five. Against the Angels he won five and lost seven games for the 1917 season. The Angels was the club that kept Krause from ranking right up around the top along with Erickson. For the Angels had Krause's goat right through the season, winning nine games and losing only one against him. The Angels beat Bill Prough eight times during the 1917 season. Prough, with those eight beatings by the Angels, and Krause, with nine beatings by the Angels, were the only pitchers during 1917 to lose more than seven games to any one club.

PROUGH'S RECORD FOR SEALS. During the 1917 season Prough won only one game from the Angels and lost eight, giving him a record of only eleven games won from the Angels in four years. The Angels have beaten Prough nineteen times in the last four years. Vernon has beaten Prough 20 times in four years—more than any other club. Prough has won his smallest number of games against the Angels. In the last two years Prough has won only three games against the Angels and has lost 12.

Prough won seven games against Portland in the 1917 season, the only time in four years that he has won more than five games against one club in a year. Prough's record for the last four years shows 63 games won and 94 games lost, and he has lost more games than he has won against every club in the league. Again putting the records of the 1914 Sacramento club under Salt Lake, Prough's records of wins and defeats for the last four years are as follows:

W. L.	W. L.	W. L.	W. L.	W. L.	W. L.
1914.....	2 7	3 3	2 4	3 4	3 3
1915.....	3 5	3 5	5 2	3 7	0 1
1916.....	4 3	2 5	2 5	5 4	4 4
1917.....	3 3	4 4	1 3	5 4	5 3

Totals.....16 19 12 17 11 19 16 20 12 19

The 1917 season was Prough's best year of the last four in games won and lost; he broke even with Salt Lake, and had the better of all other clubs except the Angels. The season showed a total of 22 wins and 22 defeats. In 1916, Prough won 18 and lost 22; in 1915, he won 14 and lost 26; in 1914, he won 14 and lost 23.

Backers of New League Turn Heels When Showdown Comes

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 15.—When spring again rolls around and the minor leagues get ready to swing open their gates, Louisville and an alleged case of cold feet may be the battle cry of the radicals who have failed to split minor league organization as it now stands. With the National Association of Professional Baseball Players in its annual session here today, whispers slipped around hotel corridors and street corners that another independent league is in the embryo stage. When the National league holds its meeting in New York, December 11, and after the American Association has finished its meeting in Chicago, December 17, some very definite plans may be announced, for the material for a good fire is on the stove and the smoke is mounting. The new league is a brand new idea. It hasn't been touched yet by anyone and isn't even in a state from which any predictions can be made, but there are certain American Association club owners who believe it can pay to put the hard turns and there are international league club owners who feel the same way about it. These men are fighters and they aren't ready to put back the thought that they have been whipped. In fact, it is felt in some quarters that a certain amount of organized baseball's support may be counted on for an independent organization. Certain leaders have made statements that might be construed in such a fashion. Whether the men would agree after a declaration of independence was made in the teeth of those who refused to sanction a re-arrangement of territory, is something that can't be said. The defeat of the plan to restrict the league was more of a surprise than those behind the idea were willing to admit today. Out of the thirteen leagues whose votes were cast there were at least seven whose votes would be counted in with the new plan. They turned their heels when the showdown came and the defeat of the radicals was turned into an absolute rout. The international league and the Three-I league were the only organizations in the association to vote for the amendment that would have given new territory to every minor league

Ticket Sale Started For Boxing Meet

Entire Receipts From Olympic Club Bout for the Red Cross.

Tickets for the International Boxing Tournament at the Auditorium next week will be put on sale today. J. Frank Marston of the Olympic Club and the official Red Cross committee announce that every seat in the house will be reserved, including the gallery seats of $1. The entire receipts of the sale of tickets for the show next Thursday and Friday will be given to the Red Cross and the expense of the Olympic Club will be borne by the Olympic Club without any deduction being made from the takings.

Considering that the best amateur fighters in the world are to be on exhibition at the coming show, the prices of admission are the lowest ever charged for such a high class series of matches. Ring side seats will sell at $3 and the remaining seats on the main floor for $2. Box seats in the balcony will be $2.50 and the gallery will be $1. Every seat in the Auditorium is a good one for a fight promoter.

Marshall Hale and John H. Britton, acting for the Red Cross, San Francisco chapter, yesterday granted the Olympic Club its official sanction and drew its entire force behind the club in a cooperative measure to insure the success of the tournament. The officials of the Red Cross named a special committee of J. Fox and Phil M. Ward, representing the Olympic Club committee, J. Frank Marston of the Olympic Club and the San Francisco Chapter was named as chairman and working with him will be Dr. George A. Wilcott, Otto Gau, Stanley J. Fox and Phil M. Ward.

Boxers from all sections of the country started to move toward San Francisco yesterday. Four national champions and the Canadian champion are on their way from the East. Capt. Archie Johnson of the Grizzlies telegraphed that he was coming to the Coast light. The Grizzlies had been granted furlough and left for San Francisco last night. Boxing club claimants are talking manfully. Muldoon's Club in Portland leaves with his string of Northwest champions today, and Wm. J. Davies of the Vancouver Athletic Club leaves today with four Canadian champions.

Captain M. C. Miller, commanding the naval training at Mare Island, yesterday forwarded an added note to represent the navy. The new boy is a lightweight named Charles K. Dawson and was discovered the other night at some impromptu boxing matches being held by the sailors. Dawson is a former member of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, where he did considerable boxing, winning the Southern California championship last year.

Peet Bros. Make It 10 Straight; Half Game From Lead

Peet Bros., by trimming the Western Electric, 10 to 0, at San Pablo Park, made it a straight win and are now within half a game of the Stars and Stripes who hold first place in the Bay Cities Commercial League. The soap company team has been putting up a great struggle for first place and has succeeded in landing there the coming Saturday.

Lawson, pitching for the Peet Bros., was in wonderful form, allowing the Electric Company's batters but five hits and, with perfect support from his team, he turned fifteen back to the home team.

Poor team work on the part of the Electric batters, the nonrunners in bullpen and their large score. Gelfin, 3rd, and Britton did the heavy hitting for the winners, Gelfin and Mehl getting three hits apiece and Britton two triples. Score:

Berry Retires From Efforts In Fight Game

Atmosphere Begins to Clear Up in Fistic World; Return to Normal Promised.

Henry Berry, boss of the San Francisco Seals, who thought to dabble in the fight game as a winter pastime, is through with it but baseball, ducks and poker, according to the latest gossip of the fight boys Harry Sullivan, transbay promoter, who was working with Berry, the match was under Police Gazette rules. Harden obtained a fall in eight minutes with a bar arm hold. The match then went the two hours, the decision going to Harden.

Tremblay had slightly the better on points in the hour and fifty-two minutes after the fall. One Judge and the referee gave Harden the decision, the other judge deciding for Tremblay.

Wilbur Cooper of the Pirates had part in more shut-outs than almost any other twirler last season. The pity of it is he

Now Berry has done a lot of talking, denying that he is in the fight game, but when Sullivan passed the buck the other night and it turned out that Berry had carelessly forgotten his pugilistic obligations and had gone hunting, that put a different aspect on things. As soon as the word reached him that Sullivan had put it up to him in a public statement, Berry came through with a rush on the coin to make good the shortage, so the report has it from Harry Sullivan's camp.

But Berry followed it up with a statement that he is now really through with the fight game. All of which means that Harry Sullivan will have to look for a new backer unless Harry's means business when he also makes the statement that he is through with

Tremblay Loses to Harnden in Wrestling

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Nov. 15.—Eugene Tremblay of Montreal failed here last night to wrest the lightweight wrestling championship from Milton Harnden of this city, claimant. The match was under Police Gazette rules. Harnden obtained a fall in eight minutes with a bar arm hold. The match then went the two hours, the decision going to Harnden.

Tremblay had slightly the better on points in the hour and fifty-two minutes after the fall. One Judge and the referee gave Harnden the decision, the other judge deciding for Tremblay.

Stanford Freshmen Beat Palo Alto High

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 15.—Stanford Freshmen defeated the Palo Alto High school team at Rugby yesterday by a score of 20 to 0. Loss of stars by the university did not weaken the first year team from Stanford.

Prior to the game, the swimmers of the Varsity team defeated the Freshmen 38 to 30 in a water carnival. Coach Brandenstein will select an all star team from the contestants to meet the all star team from the San Francisco high schools next Saturday.

Sailor Haynes Is Winner Over Stanton

Sailor Haynes won the decision over Joe Stanton in the feature bout between the Association Club across the bay last night. Sailor McCoy won the verdict over Eddie Burns in the other headline bout of the double main event card. The other bouts resulted as follows: "Dago" Jimmie Lewis and Red Morris fought to a draw, Charlie Mantell decision over Charlie Adams, Young Joe Thomas decision over Eddie Shaffer, Jimmie Craig kayoed Bill Lange in the first round, and Jack Goodrich knocked out Joe Wright in the second round.

The record for accepted chances in the outfield is held by Jack Ryan, who once caught fourteen flies in one game while playing with the Chicago Cubs.

Positive—Convincing Proof

It is all very well to make claims, but can they be proven? We publish the formula of Vinol to prove the statements we make about it.

Formula: Cod Liver and Beef Peptones, Iron and Manganese Peptones, Iron and Ammonium Citrate, Lime and Soda Glucophosphates, Casein.

Any doctor will tell you that the ingredients of Vinol as published above, combine the very elements needed to make strength.

All weak, run-down, overworked nervous men and women may prove this for an expense.

There is nothing like Vinol to restore strength and vitality to feeble old people, delicate children and all persons who need more strength.

Try it. If you are not entirely satisfied, we will return your money without question; that proves our fairness and your protection. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, and at the best drug store in every town and city in the country.—Advertisement.

Swamp-Root For Kidney Ailments

There is only one medicine that really stands out pre-eminent as a medicine for curable ailments of the kidneys, liver and bladder.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root stands the highest for the reason that it has proven to be just the remedy needed in thousands upon thousands of distressing cases. Swamp-Root, a physician's prescription for special diseases, makes friends quickly because its mild and immediate effect is soon realized in most cases. It is a gentle, healing vegetable compound.

Start treatment at once. Sold at all drug stores in bottles of two sizes, medium and large.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send in cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Oakland Daily Tribune.—Advertisement.

DELEGATION IS NOW IN PARIS

PARIS, Nov. 15.—President Poincaré welcomed the delegation of American Congressmen to France in behalf of the nation and spoke of the cordial relations between the two countries. He asked the Congressmen to convey his respects to President Wilson. The party then visited the Chamber of Deputies, where Speaker Deschanel received them. The speaker said that the ministerial crisis was a kind of family affair and did not affect France's attitude toward the war.

He asked them not to look to politicians, but to the needs of the men at the front, saying that the present upheaval was purely a desire to accelerate the carrying on of the war. M. Deschanel asked to be remembered to Speaker Clark.

Representative Taylor responded. The American party will visit the Belgian front on its way to England. M. Poincaré entertained the party at lunch. He said he was no longer premier, but that his attitude toward the war was unchanged, as was that of the nation. He spoke of the friendship of the two countries as being cemented by the blood shed on the battle fields.

FINAL RITES PAID FAMOUS AIRMAN

HEADQUARTERS OF LAFAYETTE ESCADRILLE, Tuesday, Nov. 13, via Paris, Wednesday, Nov. 14.—"Somewhere on the western front an impressive service was held today in honor of Captain George Gurney, the famous French airman recently killed in combat. The scene was in the aerodrome of a noted fighting unit of the French air service, from which members of the Lafayette flying squadron and their French comrades daily go out to give battle to the German army."

Here in a hollow square on the flying field were drawn up the personnel of the fighting squadrons quartered at this time, who listened to an inspiring address by the commandant of all the French aerodromes.

After the service there was a distribution of the honors recently won by the French and American pilots. The Americans decorated were: Lieutenant Raoul Luthery, now seventh on the list of French aviators; Sergeants Robert Rockwell, Robert Soubrin and David McKay Peterson.

Lloyd George's Critics Subside New War Council Stirs England

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Tension of the proposed inter-allied war council which nearly brought on a cabinet crisis had abated somewhat today, but the political situation is still threatening.

"There may be remarkable developments before the end of the year," was the prediction made today by the parliamentary correspondent of the Chronicle. The crux of the situation as it existed today was this:

When Prime Minister Lloyd George made it known that a supreme war council was to be formed in Paris for "greater unity and better direction of operations on the western front," a number of newspapers at once began attacking the scheme. The details of the council and its real functions were unknown. In the absence of this information the press jumped at the conclusion that politics would play a big part in the formation of the council and fears were expressed that the council would be a mere diplomatic dictate to the veteran officers now in charge of the British and French armies.

There were reports that the British cabinet might fall before the storm is weathered and the resignation of the French ministry seemed to strengthen these reports. In this respect the parliamentary correspondent of the Chronicle, who is usually well informed, says: "The position is very similar to that existing in Paris after the Rumanian collapse, which was very detrimentally upon the Asquith government. However, the British cabinet had no more responsibility for the Rumanian collapse than the present situation existing in Italy. Members and it difficult to harmonize the premier's statement in parliament yesterday with his recent speech in Paris. Where was the justification for the Paris utterances?"

WANT NORTHCLIFFE IN.
The Globe says that great pressure is being brought on Northcliffe to enter the government, and adds, "He alone is deemed capable of bolstering up."

Premier Lloyd George, on his return from his hurried trip to consult and hearten Great Britain's ally, Italy, finds himself faced by the sharpest crisis of his career as prime minister. The crisis is one which may result possibly in a vote of want of confidence by parliament, which would be followed automatically by his resignation.

The proposed new inter-allied council was the subject of discussion in the House of Commons today when the former premier, H. H. Asquith, brought the matter before the house by interrogating Premier Lloyd George on the functions of the council.

TEXT OF AGREEMENT.
Lloyd George in replying to Asquith, said that the best way of answering the question was to read the actual terms of the agreements between the British, French and Italian governments for the creation of a supreme council of the allies. The text of the agreements follows: "First—With a view to better co-ordination of the military action on the western front a supreme war council is created, composed of the prime minister and a member of the government of each of the great powers whose armies are fighting on that front, the extension of the scope of the council to other fronts to be reserved for discussion with the other great powers."

"Second—The supreme war council has for its mission to watch over the general conduct of the war. It prepares recommendations for the consideration of the governments and keeps itself informed of the execution and reports thereon to the respective governments."

"Third—The general staff and military commands of the armies of each power charged with the conduct of the military operations remain responsible to their respective governments."

"Fourth—General war plans drawn by competent military authorities are submitted to the supreme war council, which, under the high authority of government, insures its concordance and submits, if need be, any necessary changes."

"Fifth—Each power delegates to the supreme war council one permanent military representative, whose exclusive function is to act as technical adviser to the council."

"Sixth—Military representatives receive from the government and the competent military authorities of their country all proposals, information and documents relating to the conduct of the war."

"Seventh—The military representatives watch day by day the situation of the forces and the means of all kinds of which the allies and enemy armies dispose."

"Eighth—The supreme war council meets normally at Versailles, where the permanent military representatives and staffs are established; they may meet at other places, according to circumstances. Meetings of the supreme war council take place at least once a month."

SLASHED ON HAND.
During a fist fight at Twelfth and Broadway early this morning, Ray McGrath of Waterville was cut on his right hand by Arthur Lambie, his opponent, according to the police. Both men were placed under arrest, and McGrath was treated at the emergency hospital for his wound.

Heating Announcement Extraordinary

The comfort of the home or office, the efficiency of the store or factory, are dependent at this season of the year upon abundance of warm healthful air.

HEAT can now be quickly and economically furnished by the use of modern gas heating appliances. Yes! It has been proven by demonstration and use, under local conditions, that all previous objections to gas heating have been overcome.

FURTHER—Modern Gas Heaters are constructed upon the indirect heat principle—the cleanest and most healthful possible. This means that fumes, odors and other products of gas combustion do not enter the rooms.

THE COST TO OPERATE has been reduced to a minimum. By progressive inventions and methods of use, gas is now recognized as among the lowest priced fuels for domestic and many industrial uses.

Your investigation of these heating systems will be convincing—and you are assured that your needs will be amply cared for.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The first regular installment payment on the second Liberty Bonds, 18 per cent of the face value, fell due today at the Treasury and Federal reserve banks. By tonight the government expects

This also was the last day on which first Liberty Bonds bearing  $3\frac{1}{2}$  per cent interest could be exchanged for those of the second issue bearing 4 per cent, with interest at the high rate dating from today. Exchanges made hereafter will be as of December 15.

Complying with the State motor vehicle act, the street department, in conjunction with the police department, has posted signs throughout the city designating zones in which the city ordinances provide that autos shall be operated at slower speed than the State laws require. This step will insure convictions where arrests are made in the future, providing the evidence of violation is sufficient.

FATE INTERVENES.

After the meeting at the courthouse

There are four children in the family, two boys, one six years and the other only ten months old, and two girls, 3½ and 2 years old.

The convention is the outgrowth of difficulties in securing adjustments of headlights to the new state law. The law made general provisions and each community has passed local extensions, most of which are in conflict. A man who conforms to Oakland requirements, goes to Los Angeles and is arrested because the regulations there are the reverse of
